Dear Sir:-

Mr. E. P. Kennedy on his return from Alaska purchased a ticket from Seattle to San Francisco; at Portland we telegraphed him to come to Wardner and he did so-surrendering his ticket to the baggage agent in order to secure his baggage. Enclosed is the receipt obtained from the baggage agent for the ticket. Kennedy also wrote to H.C. Markham General Freight & Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific R.R. at Portland, asking for the refunding of the value of the unused portion of the ticket, but, so far, no reply has been received. Will you please take this up with the office of the Southern Pacific Co. in San Francisco and see what you can obtain.

Yours truly,

Fred. Burbidge
