

Larson & Grenough.

Operative reports, Nov. 26th, that Buck Robinson and Kid Sangilo have gone to Salteese to work on a claim of Wiley's, and that Sam Cassidy has gone to work on the Sunset group. Burris got $2 from Henderson and is going to Butte to join O'Donnell.

Operative reports that Tom Heney is back again. He told J. Bamford that he stayed at the same hotel in Spokane with Gov. Hunt, that they talked together a good deal and that he was satisfied that Hunt was all right.

The Deputies are beginning now to assert their authority. Angus Cameron, who was initiated a while ago, interfered when the Deputies were preparing to take the men, who were convicted of stealing fish, to Wallace, whereupon the Deputy threw him in jail. James Bamford was going to get a gang together to break open the jail when it got dark, but Cameron was released at 5:30 P.M., on J. Bamford and Web Leasure vouching for his appearance on Monday, at 10 A.M. Cameron, however, gave the Deputy (Oscar) $5, and was told he need not appear.

Operative reports that Hank McCarty's alias is Harry McArthur. He had two men, Ed Moore and Renyon working with him at Morning, and on his vouching for them they are to be initiated next Saturday.

The Mullen Hotel is the most peaceably conducted house in town. The proprietor Forest Clark is not in sympathy with the agitators; he feels rather sore at the Morning Co. as he says they have put stumbling blocks in his way right along, in connection with the midnight claim.

Operative reports that the foreman of the Hunter mine has not taken on a man for two weeks, and that a man by the name of Henderson or Anderson was initiated, Saturday last, Nov. 24th.
