Victor Price,

Dear Sir and Bro:

Yours in regard to Cobb at hand a couple of days ago. Will send it back to you and you can direct it to him at Burke and he can settle with you. Well, I met Wallace and the rest of them yesterday at the convention. I am delegate myself and if possible I will be down Saturday, but you have my best wishes, and hoping you are meeting with success.

I remain, yours,

Mr. S. C. Stratton,
Burke, Idaho.

Dear Sir and Bro:

Yours of 20th inst. at hand. Wm. Fitzgibbon paid Jack Bell five dollars which straightened him out until Feb. 28th, so he now owes $6.50. Please collect it and remit to me, and then I will make out his card and send same. He worked out at the Nabob when I did. His permit was made out W. J. Cobb, but I heard his name was Fitzgibbon. Hoping you are doing well, I am,

Fraternally yours,

Victor Price.

Dear Sir:-

I got your letter and was glad to hear you would help me find him, he might be close there at some of those little towns. I am a little girl only 11 years old. I dont know what union it is, and cant find his papers only the _____ 17 of Leadville is all the papers I can find now, but he might change his name. The constable has his picture in Wardner, Miller, and it is just like him. I am with a cousin here and he is not known here so I dont know what to do. There is a life insurance waiting for him. If you hear anything let me know at once.

Miss Julia Rowe, Kokomo, Colo.
