Dear sir: - The proprietor of the Montana saloon, Jno. Bioti, is feeling very bad and is cursing the country to beat the band. John says, if things don't go different, he is broke like a dog.

He claims you are all the cause of the whole work. He says 927 94 don't commence to be as bad as it is now. He says there is a mess of s-of B- here now and more coming every day. Our man Raymond is still here and is looking for a show to raise some trouble. He is an anarchist of the worst sort. He said he would not wipe his - on the stars and stripes which we honor more than our lives. Old Pat Flynn told me yesterday that it seemed to be the hardest job for the union to get a hold here again of any place he ever saw. He says, as fast as they get a man they lose two and instead of their going ahead they are losing every day.

He says it is a d-d shame.
