Dear Sir;-

Answering yours of 22nd inst. will say that I was under the impression that Z's idleness might cause him to be under suspicion. However, I have written him fully to advise me at any time that he may feel insecure in his position. If at any time, from information you receive, you think a change advisable kindly advise me and I will substitute him with a man from here.

Thanking you for your favor

I am, Yours respectfully,
