

Wardner, Idaho, March 10, 1901.

Opr. reports. ✓

Sam Hull X a loud talking Union man, who says, he has been given a number, but has not secured work yet.

James Dunston and Brother, X X they are radical union men, and are working at Plumbing around the town, they are trying to secure work in the mines.

James Dunston claims that he was given work by the Black Smith at Bunker Hill Sullivan, but the Foreman discharged him and told him he could not work in any capacity around the mines.

Union Men are claiming that W. A. Clark will not hire his men through the Employment office when he starts up his mine.

(fel)