

Wallace Idaho, March 26, 1901.

Opr. reports.

That he saw a letter from Frank Cain X X written to his sister who has charge of the rooms in the Hathaway Building, telling her to get things in shape to leave the Coeur D' Alenes as the talk of the Mine Managers about laying off one shift while at the same time they are bringing in more men satisfies the Union that they expect to cut wages, and that there will be no blowing up Mills this time, but some of the Managers would come up missing.

Cain is at work on an outside property and some man from Burke has been out to see him.

Miss Cain says her brother and four other old timers have been laid off several times on account of Mine Managers influence, and that they are very sore about it and are going to play even and as soon as the Mines cut wages it will give them an opportunity.
