Red Stratton says that the abovednamed men have recently come to Wardner in search of work and if they remain they will get it, as it will not be necessary for them to get employment through the Agency soon.

That all of the County Commissioners except two are in favor of Union Men, and that the commissioners will soon abolish the Permit system.

It is reported that Page is holding up several old-time Union men at his hotel and that some of them owe him three and four months board.

Gem Idaho, March, 23, 1901.

Men are very uneasy about the question of wages and it is thought by the most of them that there will soon be a cut.

It is expected that Governor Hunts visit will result in a great deal of good for the Union Men.
