Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your communication concerning operative's reports and am in hopes that the matter can be straightened out to your entire satisfaction at once. Mr. Barnes, I am informed, is now on the ground and will undoubtedly use his best efforts to shape matters for the benefit of all concerned. I will leave here on or about Thursday next and will probably arrive in the Coeur D'Alenes during the following week and will lose no time in calling on you.

Yours very respectfully,

W. S. Swain
