POSTOFFICE ADDRESS,

KELLOGG, IDAHO,

Aug. 2, 1899.

F. W. Bradley, Esq., Prest.

San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir,-

I received a letter from J.R. Stephens yesterday, of which I enclose a copy. It looks as if we have paid out a good deal of money without accomplishing any real good in this direction, and I wired you yesterday asking whether you considered it worth while to go to further expense in this connection.

Yours truly,

Frederick Burbidge
