
C. C. C. CAMP 279 AT CLEAR CREEK HAS PAY DAY

A happy bunch of boys from C. C. Camp 279 at Clear Creek were in town Thursday—happy because of a pay day just materialized after a delay of several days. The boys tell us that they have the best camp in this section, with a mighty fine Major in charge and real fellows for bosses in the different divisions of work.

They also tell us that they have a growing population of dogs that may yet outnumber the boys in camp to say nothing of mascots in the form of lambs, calves, woodchucks, chipmunks and a porcupine that was, but is now nothing more than porcupine quill souvenirs.
