NEW SPORT IN CAMP 250

The boys of 250 have a new game they call the axe throwing elimination. This has been started since the visit of Paul Criss, the champion axeman. The boys rotate in a circle and throw the axe from a distance of 20 feet into a tree. If one misses he automatically drops out, and the last one to stay in is the winner. So far Walter Bowser of Peterson, N. J. is the winner with only three misses out of 50 throws. Frank Timberman, Chas. Murphy and James Elliot are becoming quite proficient. Others are making the grade.

VISITORS IN CAMP F-63

Lewis Migliaccio and Sam Delvecchio from Company 281 at Stolle Meadows arrived Sunday evening to spend a three day visit with their friends in Company 250. The entire Company of 281 intimated they would inflict punishment upon themselves by not eating if they failed to win the last League baseball game from the Profile Gappers. Well, these two boys were wise and came back with the victors where they know they'll be fed. The final score of the game Sunday was 17-3 in favor of Company 250. We hope our vanquished opponents change their minds for their own good. Better luck next time Company 281.

RETURNS TO NEW JERSEY

Mr. C. Ryman Herr of Flemington, N. J. who has spent three weeks visiting his brother, Major Frederick Herr, Commander of Company 250 at Profile Gap, left Tuesday on airplane from Boise for his home in New Jersey. Mr. Herr has had an enjoyable hunting and fishing trip and has caught several fine specimens of trout and salmon. Mr. Herr and the Commanding Officer made a fishing trip to Crater Lake on Monday.

about ten o'clock at night,
He blows that horn right o'er your head,
And right then starts the fight.
He gets hit with G. I. shoes and kits
By one and every man,
And darn near goes into fits
When he's shoved in a G. I. Can.
But now and then three times a day
We like our bugler, and How!
He blows his horn and we all say,
"Come on boys and get your chow"
But he's allright and all in fun
When he grabs his horn and starts
to play
That certain song that we've begun
To learn and like three times a day.
