C. C. C. BOYS TO ENTERTAIN WITH VAUDEVILLE AT CAS- CADE THEATRE SEPT. 20

The Cascade Theatre is again sponsoring additional entertainment in addition to its regular Wednesday night show on September 20, when four select vaudeville acts will be presented by C. C. C. boys who participated in the amateur night show recently and whose excellent work brought much public approval.

These boys have been working diligently in rehearsing to make this show a howling success.

Lew Thrasher, the magician, is ready with a new "bag of tricks" which he claims will leave you gasping with wonderment.

Conroy and Mandell, the "Two Black Crows" of amateur night have arranged a new act that will be a "knock-out".

The two Hawaiians, who were much enjoyed before, have arranged ten minutes of outstanding music.

Joe Bell, Lopez and Izzo will entertain with a classy program of dance and song which you are sure to enjoy.

Tony Malko will once more be master of ceremonies and introduce the acts in his unique and humorous manner.

Don't miss this—at the Cascade Theatre, Wednesday night, September 20.
