

T EFFECT THE DIVIDEND TAX BILLS INDIVIDUAL

of July there
but yet not ov-
d trend in gen-
usual seasonal t did not mater-
ned was that the
hich business a-
er of months af-
de a delayed ap-
there has been
ained improve-
eding few years.
according to the
mmerce, was 68
n in 1932, when
n of depression
er cent higher
4 per cent high-
The Department
the manufactur-
ch is the highest

ing in various
s:

es — Advanced upward. The
ced 3 per cent
with an 8 per
of food prices.
This continues
g picture. What
been is not com-
increase in pro-
p between pro-
has widened.

indicate that

regulations which quire liquid collateral rather than character and past business standing as the basis of a loan.

REMAINING MEMBERS OF C. C. C. CAMPS TO BE TRANSFERRED TO EASTERN AREAS

Second Corps area companies will be transferred to eastern corps areas for occupation of winter camps in those areas, beginning October 10.

The remainder of Companies 250, 275, 278, 281, and 291 which are in concentration here will entrain at Cascade on the above date. Each company will be accompanied by its officers to the new location and each train will have a train doctor. Two trains will be required to move these men.

What is left of Company 250—16
men, under Cabtain Paul Dillingham, Eng. Ros., will go to Reading, Pa.

Company 275—29 men, Capt. A.
C. Purvis, Inf., to Milroy, Pa.

Company 278—18 men, Capt. H.
I. Tisdale, F. A., to Elizabethville,
Pa.

Company 279—57 men, 1st. Lieut.
J. E. McCauley, Inf. Ros., to Clifton,
Pa.

Company 281—38 men, 1st. Lieut.
H. H. Cleaves, S. C. to Fredericksburg, Pa.

Company 291—29 men, Capt. F.
Webster Cook, C. A. C., to Holabird
Q. M. Depot, Pa.

WILD DOMES
AMONG THE
GAME ANIMALS
TENNESSEE ARE
OF GOATS AND
WHICH HAVE F
TO THE WILD.

Curro

STONEBRAKER SELLS HANGAR
EQUIPMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Ca