

THE CASCADE NEWS, CASCADE, IDAHO

series will be "On the Mountain."

LOCAL YOUNG FOLKS ORGANIZE EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Civic Club entertained a large group of young people at a banquet last Friday evening, at the Community M. E. Church.

The supper was most delicious, and the program very entertaining, being composed of talks by Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. F. M. Kerby, Mrs. A. D. Robb and Rev. Gilbert, also a one act Pantomime by several of the group.

The purpose of the banquet was to organize an Epworth League, which we think can be worked out to the benefit of all those concerned and to the community as a whole.

IDAHO TO GET 70 CCC CAMPS THIS SUMMER

Representative Compton I. White reports that the director of the Civilian Conservation Corps has issued the information that 70 CCC camps will be maintained in Idaho the coming summer. According to the report, 60 of the camps will be in North Idaho and ten of them south of the Salmon river. Forty-six of the camps will be in National forests.

IDAHO SCENIC AND RECREA- TIONAL POSSIBILITIES AT- TRACT ATTENTION

Boise.— Idaho scenic and recreational possibilities are attracting attention from beyond our shores, it is revealed by a letter received recently by the State Chamber of Commerce.

The letter came from P. Tracey, 4 Granby Road, Carlow, Ireland. It requested information regarding scenic and tourist attractions of the state. "A copy of guidebook will much oblige," Tracey writes in closing.

The State Chamber is now receiving a number of requests daily from persons in all parts of the nation who contemplate touring the West this summer and desire information as to what Idaho has to offer.

Cabarton

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hardin and Ralph spent the week end at the F.