A DIME'S WORTH

At least one Cascadian was a poor guesser — beforehand — on the outcome of the Joe Louis-Max Schmelling heavyweight title fight. "I'll sell my number for 10 cents," said Hale Patterson, who drew Round No. 1 in a fight pool. "I'll buy it," said Elmer Nielsen. And he did. The fight ended in the first round.

"We are all set and rarin' to go," were the words of the management of the Thunder Mountain Days celebration which will be held at Cascade July 2-3-4. "All preparations have been made, and we are fully prepared to accommodate and entertain the largest crowd of visitors ever seen in this part of Idaho."

The schedule of ball games is now complete with a game each on two days, the visiting teams being Cambridge and Kimberly.

Plenty of fighters will be on hand from Warren and from the C.C. camp at Warm Lake. There will also be at least one bout featuring local talent. These fights will be held at Sult's garage Saturday night and Monday night.

As a special accommodation, Cascade stores will be open until noon on Monday the fourth. This is necessary as supplies of food and clothing are apt to run low during the three day celebration.

Attention of visitors is directed to the tourist camp, about a half mile south of town, on the Cabarton road. There are three fine springs on this location, the underbrush has been cleared out, and there will be plenty of firewood, tables and room for camping.

Reports keep pouring in of the large number of people who intend to spend their holidays here. One group, comprising a family reunion of relatives making a total of 70, is said to have decided to come in a body.

Cascade Couple Wed in Boise Last Week

Naomi Kerby, daughter of Mrs. D. H. Kerby, was married to Milton Schaut, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schaut, of La Branche, Minn., at St. John's Cathedral in Boise by the Reverend Father McGlinchey, Wednesday morning, June 22 at 9 o'clock. Only the immediate family and a few close friends of the young couple were present.

The bride wore a two-piece dress of powder blue crepe with navy accessories and carried a wedding bouquet of cream rosebuds. Attending the couple were George Schaut of MacGregor, brother of the groom, and Miss Palma Wallaert of Boise, who carried pink and white sweet peas.

After the ceremony the bride's mother entertained the wedding party at a breakfast.

Mrs. Schaut has been raised in Valley county and attended high school in Cascade. Later she went to the College of Idaho at Caldwell and taught two terms of school in Valley county. For the last four years she has been employed as saleslady at the C. C. Anderson store in Cascade.

The News joins with the host of friends of this young couple in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Two Dance Halls

Among other attractions are the two big dance halls. The Thunder Mountain dance hall, located on the celebration grounds, will run day and night. The other dance, which will be of a more dignified nature, will run in the evenings only. Two first-class out of town orchestras have been hired for the occasion. One will feature swing music, and the other will favor old-time music and dance numbers. All arrangements for the dances are under the supervision of Clyde Kelley.

In addition to the above, all of the attractions listed in this column in previous issues, the fancy knife-throwing, blindfold rifle shooting, street sports galore, rock drilling contests, Model T Ford race, vaudeville shows, parades and horse races are on tap and ready to entertain. There is, too, the big bar which never closes and the big tent housing all popular games of chance, which gives you every opportunity in the world to make your celebration expenses. Don't forget to stop at Thunder City Bank and buy your Thunder City money, for it is the only money used on the grounds.

For the biggest show of the year in the Upland Empire—don't forget to be in Cascade July 2, 3, 4.

Early Celebration

Nothing like that to interrupt the celebration, and at 10 o'clock Mr. Edwards mounted the platform and they proceeded with the celebration just as it was planned.

The program consisted of drilling contest, for which several big granite boulders had been dragged in the day before. Around these the contestants grouped, first the "Single Jack" with sharpened drills and a four-pound hammer, then the "Double Jack." One man handled the drills and kept the hole clear while the other man swung an eight pound hammer with both hands. They had a packing contest in which they tried their skill at packing horses and securing the back with the famous "Double Diamond Hitch." There was a wrestling match and a burro race. All was in keeping with the times.

Mr. Edwards wished Cascade lots of luck with the celebration — and said he did not mean snow.

TWO COUPLES MARRIED

Marriage licenses were issued to Robert Stillman and Eleanor Humphreys, Boise, and Edwin Stratton, Argdorf, and Luella Barnum Nam. Both couples were married at the court house by Judge Campbell.

SEEKS ANOTHER TERM

Dorothy E. Fowler filed her candidacy yesterday for the office of county treasurer of Valley County. She seeks nomination to that position in the democratic primaries.

Mrs. Fowler is the incumbent of that office, which she has held for the last 10 years.
