University of Idaho

HERE WE HAVE IDAHO

- 1 *Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.*

Chorus

*And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

- 2 *Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.*

Chorus

*And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

11:30 A.M.	Mines and Earth Resources	University Auditorium, Administration Building
1:30 P.M.	Agriculture	Memorial Gymnasium
	Education	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
	Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences	Student Union Building Ballroom
3:30 P.M.	Business and Economics	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
4:30 P.M.	Law	Memorial Gymnasium

Honorary Degrees

Doctor of Humane Letters

THOMAS O. BELL

Provost and Professor of Education Emeritus

Moscow, Idaho

Doctor of Science

M. ROY SCHWARZ

Group Vice President of Scientific, Educational, and Practice Standards at the American Medical Association

Chicago, Illinois

Doctor of Administrative Science

DEAN D. THORNTON

Former President of Boeing Commercial Airplane Group

Seattle, Washington

Doctor of Pedagogy

ALBERTA D. HILL

Dean and Professor of Education Emerita

Pullman, Washington

Graduate Degrees

COLLEGE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

Established in 1925. Jean'ne M. Shreeve, Ph.D., Vice Provost

Doctor of Philosophy

- *Rashid Ahmad, B.S.Agric.,M.S.,Agric., Faisalabad, Pakistan
Plant Science. Dissertation: "Physiological and Developmental Characteristics of SpringWheat (Triticum Aestivum L.) Genotypes Differing in Drought Tolerance."

Medical Education Programs

WASHINGTON-OREGON-IDAHO REGIONAL PROGRAM IN VETERINARY MEDICAL EDUCATION

Richard A. Battaglia, Ph.D., Director, Idaho Program

Idaho students receiving Doctorates in Veterinary Medicine from Washington State University through the WOI cooperative program:

Elizabeth C. Davies, Genesee

Carla A. Fuller, Caldwell

Paul W. Jenson, Montpelier

Suzanne N. Kasper, B.S., Hayden Lake

A. Bruce King, B.S., Sagle

Clinton L. Pedersen, Moscow

Lisa S. Reese, Boise

Keith R. Ruble, B.S., Cascade

Andrea I. Wade, B.S., Boise

The University of Idaho cooperates with Washington State University and Oregon State University in a program of veterinary medical education, research, and service. In the WOI program, students from Idaho take the first three years of professional training in veterinary medicine at Washington State University; faculty members from UI and WSU offer instruction in the professional and academic curricula. In the fourth year of the program, students receive part of the clinical training at the Caldwell, Idaho, veterinary medical facility.

WASHINGTON-ALASKA-MONTANA-IDAHO PROGRAM IN MEDICAL EDUCATION

Michael B. Laskowski, Ph.D., Director

Idaho students receiving Doctorates in Medicine from the University of Washington through participation in the WAMI Medical Education Program:

Kasra R. Badiozamani, Boise

David A. Ballance, Boise

Mary E. Barinaga, Cambridge

Michael J. Eisses, Coeur d'Alene

Tina M. Toennis, B.S., Cottonwood

Laura M. Walters, B.S., M.S., Orofino

Michelle S. Witherspoon, B.S., Boise

Ted M. Zollman, Boise

In the WAMI Medical Education Program, offered by the University of Washington School of Medicine and selected universities and communities in Washington, Alaska, Montana, and Idaho, medical students from Idaho receive the first year of their medical training at the University of Idaho. Students attend classes at the University of Idaho and Washington State University, thus benefiting from a large group of instructors and varied selection of elective courses; laboratories and other facilities for individual work are available at both institutions. First-year students also have the opportunity to work with local physician-preceptors.

George E. Dafoe Memorial Award

George Dafoe's leadership, dedication and integrity came at a critical juncture in student government and campus history. He continued to guide and inspire student leaders up to his untimely death in the summer of 1990 due to cancer. His unique personal qualities and capability placed in service of student interests inspired this award. The George E. Dafoe Memorial Award is awarded annually to at least one deserving student, who has served in the Associated Students University of Idaho (ASUI).

Allison Lindholm Touchstone, Filer

Frank W. Childs IV Memorial Award

Frank W. Childs IV, was an engineering student from the University of Idaho who died an untimely, tragic death. Frank was both an outstanding student and activity involved in student government. The student government created this award in his memory to honor graduating seniors who exhibit similar qualities.

Allison Lindholm Touchstone, Filer

James A Barnes Memorial Award

The James A Barnes Award was created by the Associated Students University of Idaho (ASUI) to honor an outstanding UI staff person who has displayed extraordinary enthusiasm and service to the students of the University of Idaho. Jim was Director of High School Relations (New Student Services) from 1975 to 1984 when he died of cancer at the age of 36. Jim's incredible energy, sense of humor and joy of living fully influenced young people to improve their lives through higher education and many to enroll at the University of Idaho.

Raymond Horton, Residence Life

Richard Gibb Award

The award is given to the student(s) who has come to the university in a non-traditional fashion (i.e. not directly from high school) and has overcome a variety of obstacles in undertaking their education while providing service and leadership to the campus community.

Lucy Jones, Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada.

Multicultural Student Awards

The award is given to two students who have shown a genuine concern toward multicultural issues and have worked on the behalf of multicultural issues on campus.

Victoria Salinas, Twin Falls

Michael J. Smith, Post Falls

Student International Leadership Award

The award is given annually to at least one deserving student who demonstrates outstanding leadership on campus and in the community by making significant contributions toward internationalizing the campus and community and by contributing to intercultural understanding and friendship.

Claudia Charpentier, Moscow

Marcin Topolewski, Poland

Amtul Sheikh, Moscow

The Individual Community Service Award

This award is in recognition of an individual student who has demonstrated exceptional motivation, innovation and involvement in community service. This individual is one who has provided outstanding service to the community without regard for personal gain, while exhibiting commitment to the causes, concerns, events or needs at hand.

Julie Ann Streib, Moscow

The Organization Service Award

This award is in recognition of an organization which has demonstrated exceptional motivation, innovation and involvement in community service. Citations on Retirement

Terry Armstrong

Professor Emeritus of Education

One of the university's most well-known faculty members retires this spring.

Terry Armstrong, professor of education, has spent 37 years teaching and enjoying Idaho students. Many alumni remember his friendly smile and hearty hello as he walks across campus. One of his pet projects is the Found Money Fund. People from around the world send money they find—in amounts ranging from pennies to several dollars—to the endowment, which now totals approximately $30,800. Fund earnings finance scholarships for students in any field of study at UI.

He holds a B.S. degree in biology from Southern Mississippi University and a master of natural science degree and doctor of education degree from UI.

In addition to his teaching duties, he was executive assistant to the president from 1978 to 1989, interim director of University Relations in 1978, and coordinator of Student Services from 1979 to 1989.

Armstrong is a member of the Idaho Academy of Science, Idaho Science Teachers Association, National Science Teachers Association, Association for the Education of Teachers of Science, Beta Beta Beta National Biological Science Honorary, Phi Sigma National Biological Science Honorary, Phi Delta Kappa International Education Honorary, Phi Kappa Phi National Scholastic Honorary, National Association of Biology Teachers, American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education, and has been active in several other professional organizations.

He has many professional publications to his credit and has been honored as the Idaho State Department of Education Idaho Teacher of the Year for 1967; UI Outstanding Professor for 1969; as an Outstanding Educator for 1970, 1972, 1973 and 1975; UI College of Education Contribution to Idaho Education Award in 1986, as well as several other honors.

Thomas O. Bell

Professor of Education and Provost Emeritus

With 40 years service in public education, research and development centers and universities, including nine years in the University of Idaho's top academic position, vice president for academics and later provost, Tom Bell has retired.

He first came to UI in 1966, leaving in 1969 to work for the Northwest Regional Education Laboratory in the Southwest Pacific. He returned to UI in 1971, as associate dean of the College of Education and became dean in 1981. He was also director of the Division of Teacher Education until leaving the College of Education to become vice president for academics and research. That position was elevated to Provost under UI President Elisabeth Zinser.

His B.S. and M.S. degrees in education and educational administration are from Idaho State University and his Doctor of Education degree was completed in 1966 at Utah State University.

Bell is a member of the American Educational Research Association, American Association of School Administrators, Northwest Regional Educational Laboratory and Phi Delta Kappa.

He has been honored with the UI Alumni Citation for Educational Leadership and the Governor of Guam's Award, Ancient Order of Chammoni.

James A. Bikkie

Professor Emeritus of Vocational Teacher Education

James A. Bikkie came to UI in 1973, as professor and director of the Division of Vocational Teacher Education. He held that position until 1988, when he returned to teaching as professor of vocational teacher and adult education, the position from which he is retiring. He holds a B.S. degree in education from Saint Cloud State College, Minn.; an M.A. in distributive and vocational education and a Ph.D. in curriculum and instruction from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Before coming to UI, he was associate professor of secondary education at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, and assistant professor of business teacher education and secondary education at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. He also worked for the University of Nebraska; Roseville, Minnesota, Public Schools; Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia; and Burlington, Iowa, Public Schools.

He is a member of the American Vocational Association; Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development; Delta Pi Epsilon; Distributive Education Clubs of America; Phi Delta Kappa, graduate honorary society for business education; and the National Association of Universities for Vocational Leadership Development. He has been honored with the State Administrator's Award of Service for the Idaho Division of Vocational Education and the Certificate of Appreciation from the National Association of State Directors of Vocational Education, Inc.

Paul C. Conditt

Gifts Librarian Emeritus with rank of Professor

After 34 years at the University of Idaho, Paul Conditt is retiring. He first came to UI Feb. 1, 1961, as general librarian. He has held several administrative positions at the UI Library before assuming his present position in 1991.

Conditt earned a B.A. degree from Trinity University and an M.S. from the Columbia University School of Library Service. Before coming to UI, he was a librarian with the Brooklyn Public Library. He is a member of the Idaho Library Association and the American Association of University Professors.

He has written several books and articles helpful to library professionals and collected and edited manuscripts for The Retrospect, and Other Verse, the Collected Poetry of George A. Kellogg. He holds a Coppini gold medal from Trinity University for senior art competition, and the United Staff Association of the Public Libraries of the City of New York Scholarship Award.

George C. Gardner

Extension Professor Emeritus

Known by many residents of southeast Idaho for his knowledge of gardening and horticulture, George Gardner is retiring after 34 years of helping people grow plants.

He holds a B.S. degree in agricultural education and biological science and an M.S. degree in agricultural education and education administration from the University of Idaho.

Gardner began his UI career as Jefferson County extension agricultural agent in 1961, and in 1965 became extension agricultural agent at Fort Hall. In 1967, he moved to Oneida County as agricultural agent and in 1974 to Bannock County where he has worked as extension agricultural agent since.

He has led and assisted with many training sessions for agriculture related subjects and has been active in youth programs for the counties where he has worked. He is a member of the Idaho County Agents Association, Epsilon Sigma Phi and the Western Society of Crop Science. In the course of his career, he has written or co-authored many current information series publications.

Among his honors are membership in Alpha Zeta agricultural honorary and Phi Delta Kappa education honorary, the Dean Iddings Scholarship and being named a Search for Excellence winner in the Urban Program Area by the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

Peter A. Haggart

Professor of Communication and Director Emeritus

After teaching University of Idaho communication students skills in radio and television for 32 years, Peter Haggart is retiring.

He first came to UI in 1963 as an instructor of radio-television and became professor of communication in 1978. He has served as program director for KUID-TV, chair of the Radio-Television Department, general manager of KUID-TV and KUID-FM, acting manager of KUID-TV and KUID-FM, acting director and director of the School of Communication.

Haggart holds a B.A. degree in speech from the University of South Dakota, an M.S. in film-television from the University of Kansas and has done graduate work in film at both the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Iowa. Several scholarly articles published in professional journals are credited to him.

He is a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho radio-television honorary, Broadcast Education Association, Phi Kappa Delta, Society for Cinema Studies, The American Film Institute, Speech Communication Association, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, and the Idaho Chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

He has been honored with the Alumni Association Award for Excellence, and KUID-TV station programs won a number of professional awards while he was manager.

James L. Halderson

Research Professor Emeritus of agricultural engineering

During his years with the University of Idaho, James L. Halderson has worked on a variety of agriculture-related engineering research projects, including improved irrigation control systems and better ways to handle food crops during and post-harvest.

He came to the UI Research and Extension Center in Aberdeen in 1977 and has worked there since, studying and designing agricultural equipment.

Halderson holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Wisconsin and a Ph.D. from Purdue University. Before coming to UI, he did research and taught at Cornell and Purdue universities. He also worked as an extension agricultural engineer for the University of Wisconsin and as an agricultural engineer for the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago.

He is a member of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, the Council for Agricultural Science and Technology, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Idaho Academy of Science, Instrument Society of America and the Potato Association of America.

He has written many technical papers for publication in professional journals and chapters for several technical books, as well as giving technical presentations for professional association meetings. He holds professional engineer licenses in Idaho and Wisconsin, was named a Young Scientist of the Year by Michigan State University's Waste Management Conference.

John Holup

Professor Emeritus of Marketing Education

With nearly 25 years teaching University of Idaho students about marketing education, John Holup is retiring.

He came to UI in August 1971, and before that, taught distributive education and related subjects at Toledo Waite High School, Toledo, Ohio; and Bowling Green State University. Holup holds B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Bowling Green State University and a Ph.D. in vocational education from Washington State University.

He is a member of several professional organizations, including Idaho Marketing Education Teachers Association, Idaho Vocational Association, American Vocational Association, Council for Distributive Teacher Education, Distributive Education Clubs (DECA) of America, Marketing and Distributive Education Association, Phi Delta Kappa, National Business Education Association and Idaho Life-long Learning Association. Author of several professional books, he has written or contributed to many publications in his field, and has given numerous scholarly papers at professional meetings.

His honors include being named an Outstanding Business Education Student at Bowling Green State University; Pi Omega Pi, business education honorary; Delta Pi Epsilon, graduate honorary; an Outstanding Teaching Service Award from Toledo Public Schools; an honorary life membership in the Idaho DECA organization; an Alumni Award for Excellence, and an Outstanding Service Award from the National DECA organization.

Donald R. Johnson

Professor Emeritus of Zoology

One of Idaho's experts on the state's birds and small mammals is retiring after 27 years serving the state's students and citizens.

Donald Johnson came to the University of Idaho in 1968 and has conducted research and taught courses since. He holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in zoology from the University of Idaho and a Ph.D. in wildlife ecology from Colorado State University. Before coming to Idaho, he worked at Minot State College in North Dakota, Utah State University and Fort Lewis College, Durango, Colo.

Johnson has written many technical papers for publication in scholarly journals. He is a member of Sigma Xi, American Society of Mammalogists, Northwest Scientific Association, Raptor Research Foundation, Western Society of Bird Banders and the Idaho Academy of Science. He has been honored with a UI Alumni Award of Excellence.

Dwaine J. Marten

Professor Emeritus of Physical Education

After 31 years teaching physical education courses at the University of Idaho, Dwaine Marten is retiring.

He first came to UI in 1964, as coordinator of Health and Safety, and has since had contact with hundreds of students. He holds a B.S. in physical education from Bemidji State University, an M.S. in physical education from Southern Illinois University and a doctoral degree in health and safety from Indiana University.

Before coming to UI, he was an instructor in physical education and head wrestling and assistant football coach for Bemidji State University, a freshman football coach for Southern Illinois University, and an instructor in physical education and head baseball and wrestling coach for MacMurray College.

He has given many workshop presentations and written several technical articles for publication in scholarly journals. He is a member of the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (AAHPERD); Northwest AAHPERD; American School Health Association; Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Epsilon Kappa; and the Idaho Association for HPERD.

Among his honors and awards are the Distinguished Service Award of the Idaho Association for HPERD; Outstanding Alumni Award from Bemidji State University and the Athletic Hall of Fame Award from Bemidji State University.

William H. Parks

Professor Emeritus of Business Strategies

Having taught a variety of business courses at the University of Idaho since August, 1972, William Parks is retiring.

He holds a B.A. in business, an M.A. in Finance and a Ph.D. in finance from Michigan State University. Before coming to UI, he was a graduate assistant and assistant instructor at Michigan State University and instructor and assistant professor of finance at the University of Oregon. He also worked as an accountant for the General Motors Cadillac Division and is president and founder of Northwest River Supplies.

Parks has written a number of scholarly papers for publication in professional journals and given several presentations at professional meetings. He is a member of the Financial Management Association, Small Business Institute Directors Association and International Conference for Small Business. Among his honors are a Superior Student Scholarship for Undergraduate Students and a Steel Service Center Institute Fellowship.

Rolland R. Reid

Professor of Geology and Department Head Emeritus

For 40 years, Rolland Reid has taught geology students and conducted research on many aspects of Idaho geologic structures and mineral wealth.

He first came to the University of Idaho in 1955 and has been active in field research across the state since. He holds B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in geology from the University of Washington. In addition to his activities in teaching and research, Reid has served as acting head and head of the Department of Geology and Geography, acting dean and dean of the College of Mines and Earth Resources and is head of the Department of Geology and Geological Engineering.

He has written many technical articles on the geology of the state for publication in professional journals. Reid is a fellow of the Geological Society of America, a registered professional geologist in Idaho and a member of the Society of Economic Geologists. Among his honors and awards are the Idaho Chapter of Sigma Xi Research Award, and two Outstanding Faculty Awards,

Fred H. Tingey

Professor of Engineering Science and Director Emeritus of Idaho Falls Center for Higher Education

Fred Tingey retires this year after 16 years guiding the University of Idaho's education efforts in Idaho Falls. He joined UI in 1979 as professor of engineering science and director of the Idaho Falls Center for Higher Education and has seen that facility develop to its present level as the need for more university level courses became evident.

He holds an associate of science degree from Weber Junior College in Ogden, Utah; a degree in meteorology from the Chicago Meteorology School for the U.S. Air Force at Grand Rapids, Mich.; a B.S. degree in mathematics and physics from Utah State University and an M.S. in mathematics and Ph.D. in mathematical statistics from the University of Washington.

Before coming to UI, he worked for General Electric Co.; Phillips Petroleum Company; Technical Operations, Inc.; Idaho Nuclear Corp.; Aerojet Nuclear Co., and EG&G Idaho. Tingey has written several scholarly articles for publication in technical journals. He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Sigma Xi and Pi Mu Epsilon.

Cry Room

A cry room for infants needing seclusion is available in the pressbox of the south concourse.

First-Aid Station

A first-aid station, with an EMT in attendance, is located at the center of the south concourse.

Restrooms are located near the center of the south concourse.

Academic Apparel Return

At the conclusion of each college commencement recognition ceremony, graduates must return rented gowns and hoods to a designated table at each college site.

Photography

Image Studios, 222 Troy Road, Moscow (208/882-5594), will provide the photography for the 1995 Commencement. The studio will photograph each student at the individual college ceremonies and mail a free color proof to each student when an address is provided.

To enrich education through diversity, the University of Idaho does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran in employment or in admission to or the operation of its educational programs and activities, as required by state and federal laws and regulations. Inquiries may be directed to the university's affirmative action office.

SIGNIFICANCE OF ACADEMIC APPAREL

By noting certain features of a person's apparel, it is possible to learn several things about his or her academic status: the level of the degree attained, the branch of learning in which it was earned, and the institution.

GOWNS—

The gowns differ according to the level of the degree. The sleeves are the principal indicator—gowns of doctors have round, bell-shaped sleeves; those of masters have long, closed sleeves that now open at the wrist; and bachelors have long, pointed sleeves. Doctoral gowns have distinctive velvet facing around the collar and down the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve.

HOODS—

The size of the hood also varies according to the degree. Hoods of bachelors are only three feet long (they are rarely seen today and not worn at Idaho). A master's hood is three and one-half feet long, and a doctor's is four feet in length and has side panels. It is from the colors adorning the hood that one can learn two other facts: the hood is lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree (silver and gold, of course, signifying the University of Idaho) and it is trimmed with velvet of a color denoting the wearer's branch of learning. Following are the colors that correspond to the advanced degrees granted by the University of Idaho:

Doctor of Philosophy	Dark Blue
Doctor of Education, Specialist in Education, and Master of Education	Light Blue
Juris Doctor	Purple
Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (conferred through Washington State University)	Gray
Master of Arts and Master of Arts in Teaching	White
Master of Science and Master of Natural Science	Golden Yellow
Master of Architecture	Violet
Master of Business Administration	Drab
Master of Engineering	Orange
Master of Fine Arts	Brown
Master of Forestry	Russet
Master of Music	Pink
Master of Public Administration	Peacock Blue

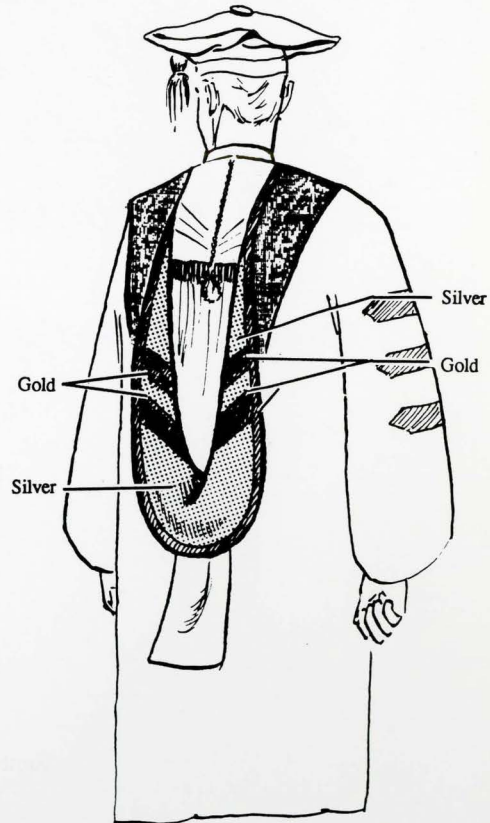

Colors for disciplines not cited above are:

Agriculture	Maize
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Home Economics	Maroon
Journalism	Crimson
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Nursing	Apricot
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Social Work	Citron
Speech	Silver Gray
Theology	Scarlet

HONOR CORDS—

Honor Cords, worn around the neck and hanging loosely down the front, identify students who are graduating with honors: bronze cords designate graduation cum laude (with distinction); silver, magna cum laude (with great distinction); and gold, summa cum laude (with highest distinction). The cords are provided by the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi and are worn on this one occasion only.

The University of Idaho adopted a doctoral gown of its own in 1989. The silver gown has a panel and sleeve bars of black velvet outlined in antique gold. The beret-style softcap is patterned after the Cambridge version instead of the traditional Oxford-style mortarboard. The cap and gown were designed by emeritus professor Edmund Chavez in the university's centennial year.
