

ONE HUNDRED SECOND COMMENCEMENT

University of Idaho

May 17, 1997

William H. Kibbie ASUI Activity Center

Celebrating 100 years of graduate education

HERE WE HAVE IDAHO

- 1 *Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.*

Chorus

*And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

- 2 *Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.*

Chorus

*And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

Presiding: Robert A. Hoover, Ph.D., President of the University of Idaho

Prelude "Intrada"	University Wind Ensemble Composer, William S. Whitley, Music Graduate Student
Processional	University Wind Ensemble Conductor, Robert J. Spevacek, Professor of Music
Presentation and Posting of the Colors	ROTC Color Guard
The National Anthem	Jennifer Hudson Graduating Senior
Welcome	William L. Voxman Professor of Mathematics Chair of the Faculty Council
Remarks	President Robert A. Hoover
Greetings	Pete T. Cenarrusa Secretary of State
Commencement Address	The Honorable James A. McClure U.S. Senator, retired
Presentation of Honorary Degrees	President Robert A. Hoover George M. Simmons, Interim Provost Tom E. Jenness, Professor of Communication and chair of the Honorary Degrees Committee
Conferring of Graduate, Advanced Professional, and Baccalaureate Degrees	President Robert A. Hoover
Recognition of Honors Students	President Robert A. Hoover
Commissioning of Graduates of Officer Education Programs	Colonel Jack E. McPhie United States Air Force
Congratulations	James R. Dalton President of the Associated Students University of Idaho
Welcoming Graduates as New Alumni	Dick Hauff President of the Alumni Association
The Alma Mater, "Here We have Idaho," composer Sallie Hume-Douglas	(words on opposite page) The entire assembly joins in the singing of the Alma Mater
Recessional	University Wind Ensemble

Each college will hold a separate ceremony at the location and time indicated below.
The audience is encouraged to walk to these locations to avoid traffic and parking congestion.

11:00 A.M.	Engineering	Memorial Gym
	Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences	SUB Ballroom
	General Studies	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
	Letters and Science	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
	Mines and Earth Resources	University Auditorium
1:30 P.M.	Agriculture	Memorial Gym
	Art and Architecture	SUB Ballroom
	Education	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
3:30 P.M.	Business and Economics	Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center
4:30 P.M.	Law	Memorial Gym

Degrees Conferred Earlier

- * August 2, 1996
  December 20, 1996

The appearance of a name in this program is presumptive evidence of graduation and graduation honors; it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The academic transcript, signed and sealed by the proper university officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

WASHINGTON-ALASKA-MONTANA-IDAHO PROGRAM IN MEDICAL EDUCATION Established in 1971. Michael B. Laskowski, Ph.D., Director

Idaho students receiving Doctorates in Medicine from the University of Washington through participation in the WAMI Medical Education Program:

Roy M. Bak, Coeur d'Alene
Corey S. Bruce, Pocatello
Mary R. Dunn-Kerr, Nampa
Winthrop H. Hall, Hailey
Cynthia L. Hayes, Meridian
Robert J. Hilvers Jr., Boise
Mark E. Hoggan, Rexburg
Jean K. Kayser, Boise
Kelly A. Lane, Caldwell

Jeffrey R. Lyman, Moscow
Richard N. Mattis, Potlatch
Julie D. Lyon, B.S., Pocatello
Charles D. Meyers, Boise
Jennifer W. Reese, Hayden Lake
Scott A. Schindell, Emmett
Paula M. Silha, Ririe
William F. Sims, Hayden Lake

In the WAMI Medical Education Program, offered by the University of Washington School of Medicine and selected universities and communities in Washington, Alaska, Montana, and Idaho, medical students from Idaho receive the first year of their medical training at the University of Idaho. Students attend classes at the University of Idaho and Washington State University, thus benefiting from a large group of instructors and varied selection of elective courses; laboratories and other facilities for individual work are available at both institutions. First-year students also have the opportunity to work with local physician-preceptors.

WASHINGTON-OREGON-IDAHO PROGRAM IN VETERINARY MEDICAL EDUCATION Established in 1974. Richard A. Battaglia, Ph.D., Head

Idaho students receiving Doctorates in Veterinary Medicine from the University of Washington through the WOI cooperative program:

David D. Baggett, Buhl
Randall D. Gutting, Kendrick
Kathleen M. Jensen, Idaho Falls
Catherine P. King, B.S. M.S., Sagle
Kevin E. Long, B.S., Grangeville

Roy D. Mausling, Boise
Deborah S. Olsen, B.S., Idaho Falls
Tracy M. Ridgeway, B.S., Moscow
Timothy R. Warner, B.S., Boise

The University of Idaho cooperates with Washington State University and Oregon State University in a program of veterinary medical education, research and service. In the WOI program, students from Idaho take the first three years of professional training in veterinary medicine at Washington State University; faculty members from UI and WSU offer instruction in the professional and academic curricula. In the fourth year of the program, students receive part of the clinical training at the Caldwell, Idaho, veterinary medical facility.

CITATIONS ON RETIREMENT

Robert Callihan

Extension Professor Emeritus

Weeds—identifying them and controlling them—have been the focus of Robert Callihan's 30 years with the University of Idaho. Now, he has retired. He began his UI career at the Aberdeen Research and Extension Center in 1967 as extension potato specialist and began his weed science research there in 1970. In 1981, he was reassigned to Moscow and has worked at the UI campus since. He taught many of the classes on weeds offered to agriculture students and maintained the weed science herbarium facility in addition to doing research on weed control. He also served as major professor for a number of graduate students and sat on the graduate committee for others. He is a member of American Society of Agronomy; Crop Science Society of America; European Association for Potato Research; Idaho Weed Control Association; International Society of Weed Science; Potato Association of America; Soil Science Society of America; Weed Science Society of America; Western Society of Weed Science; and American Phytopathological Society. Callihan has many publications in professional journals and has contributed to several books. Among his honors and awards are the Polish government Honors Meritorious in Agriculture for 1977; a 1986 Idaho Weed Control Association Meritorious Service Award; an Epsilon Sigma Phi State Team Award for outstanding forest stewardship education and development in 1993; and a joint American Society of Agronomy Certificate of Excellence for Development of Agronomic Educational Material in the category of publications and manuals.

Roy H. Goetschel Jr.

Professor Emeritus of Mathematics

After 28 years of teaching and researching mathematics and statistics at the University of Idaho, Roy Goetschel is retiring. He began his UI career in September 1969, coming here from Sonoma State College. He holds a B.S. degree from Northwestern University, an M.S. degree from DePaul University and completed his Ph.D. in 1966 at the University of Wisconsin. His research specialty has been the study of fuzzy sets and systems, and he is a permanent member of the reviewing staff for the International Journal for Fuzzy Sets and Systems. He is author of many scholarly articles for professional publications.

Harold R. Guenther

Extension Professor Emeritus

Harold Guenther began his University of Idaho career in 1976 as an associate extension professor and in 1977 was named extension professor and superintendent of the Southwest Idaho Research and Extension Center in Caldwell. In 1981, he became associate dean for the College of Agriculture and director of the Cooperative Extension Service. He later moved to Twin Falls where he served as director of University of Idaho District III Cooperative Extension Service until his retirement. He is a member of the American Forage and Grassland Council; American Society of Agronomy; Crop Science Society of America; Idaho Seed Council; Western Society of Crop Science; Society of Sigma Xi; Idaho Food and Agricultural Council; and Western Extension Directors. He has been active in university and civic affairs. Guenther has written many technical articles for publication in professional journals. Among his honors and awards are membership in Alpha Zeta agriculture honorary society; Gamma Sigma Delta honorary society; and Sigma Xi honorary society. He received the 1974 Alpha Zeta Faculty Award.

Donald A. Harter

Extension Professor Emeritus

After 25 years with the University of Idaho in positions ranging from extension community development work and managing Personnel Services to extension conference specialist, Donald Harter has retired. He remains active in international development posts at sites around the world. He completed work for a Ph.D. in extension administration at the University of Wisconsin in 1968. He holds an M.Ed. in educational administration from the University of Massachusetts and a B.S. in agricultural education from Pennsylvania State University. Active as a consultant in several areas, he has written many scholarly articles for publication in professional journals. Among his honors and awards are membership on the Board of Directors of Idaho Americorps; vice president of the Idaho Hall of Fame Association; 1972 Geigy Recognition Award for the best extension program in Pennsylvania; 1972 National Celanese Environmental Quality Recognition Award sponsored by the National Association of County Agricultural Agents for the outstanding community leadership program in the nation; 1974 National AMCHEM Company Public Information Award for best feature story involving an extension program; listing in "Who's Who in the West" in 1976; and a 1989 commendation from the College of Agriculture for excellent evaluation of teaching performance by international students. Harter is a member of American Academy for the Advancement of Science; American Federation of Teachers; European Association of Agricultural Economists; Idaho Association of Agricultural Agents; National Association of Agricultural Agents; National Community Development Society; Northwest Adult Education Association of U.S.-Canada, Gamma Sigma Delta; Epsilon Sigma Phi; Alpha Tau Alpha; Alpha Kappa Lambda; and National Honor Society. He also has been active in civic and community events.

Terry R. Howard

Professor Emeritus of Geological Engineering and Civil Engineering

Terry Howard has done much of Idaho's research on stability problems associated with tunnels, underground openings, embankment dam design, slope stability analysis, environmental impact of mining operations and computer applications to the geotechnical field in his 24 years with the University of Idaho. He earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in geological engineering from the University of Idaho and his doctor of philosophy degree in civil engineering from the University of California at Berkeley. He worked for Dames and Moore, Consulting Engineers, of San Francisco, Calif., before beginning his doctoral studies. Since coming to UI, he has continued to consult with a variety of civic and government agencies. He is a member of American Society of Civil Engineers; Association of Engineering Geologists; Society of Sigma Xi; Sigma Gamma Epsilon; Tau Beta Pi; Rocky Mountain Environmental Research; Earthquake Hazards Panel; and National Committee on Engineering Geology. He has written many technical articles for publication in professional journals and presentations at meetings. He is a registered professional engineer in the state of Idaho and a registered geologist with a certified speciality in engineering geology in California.

Lowell D. Jackson*Professor Emeritus of Education*

After 13 years of teaching a variety of education courses at the University of Idaho, Lowell Jackson is retiring. He holds an A.B. degree in history, an M.S. degree in education and an Ed.D. degree in school management, all from the University of Southern California. He came to UI in 1984. Before that, he taught in Lennox, Calif., Twentynine Palms, Calif., and Centinela Valley Union public schools. He also taught management development courses for Saudi Arabian citizens at Madinat Yanbu Al-Sinaiyah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and a variety of administration courses at the University of Southern California and the University of Hawaii. Jackson is a member of Phi Alpha Theta; Phi Delta Kappa; Association of School Business Officials International; Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development; and American Education Finance Association. He has written many scholarly articles for publication in professional journals. Among his honors and awards are a 1967 Meritorious Teaching Award from the University of Hawaii; 1971-72 and 1973-74 Rotarian of the Year Award from the Hawthorne, Calif., Rotary Club; 1977 Golden Mike Award for "Superintendent's Report," a weekly radio show; and a 1984 Medal of Excellence from the Royal Commission for Jubail and Yanbu.

Roger B. Long*Professor Emeritus of Agricultural Economics*

Touching the lives of hundreds of students in his 34 years as a member of the teaching and research faculty at three universities, Roger Long also has found time for many research projects. After 29 years at the University of Idaho, he is retiring. He came to UI in 1966 from New Mexico State University where he taught and did research for three years. In 1970, he took a leave of absence from UI and spent two years at the University of Alberta. His research interests cover a broad range of subjects, including marketing Idaho's agricultural and forest products, and water usage and regulation. Long has written many articles about his research for publication in scholarly journals, research bulletins and reports. Among his honors are serving as editor of the Gopher Peavey in 1954; Phoenix Society; Arnold Air Society; Mather Award; Agricultural Experiment Station Bulletin Award in 1967; and membership in Xi Sigma Pi and Gamma Sigma Delta.

Barbara Meldrum*Professor Emerita of English*

In the 32 years Barbara Meldrum has taught literature courses at the University of Idaho, her work has touched the lives of hundreds of students. She came to UI in 1965 as assistant professor of English and was promoted to associate professor in 1967 and to professor in 1973. Before coming to UI, she taught at Arizona State University from 1962 to 1965 and at University of Redlands from 1959 to 1962. She is a member of the Western Literature Association, serving as president in 1988-89; American Association of University Professors, serving as president of the UI chapter in 1973-75; Modern Language Association; American Studies Association; American Literature Association; Melville Society; Pacific Northwest American Studies Association; Phi Beta Kappa; and Phi Kappa Phi. Active as a researcher of Western American fiction, she has written numerous articles for professional journals. Meldrum also has contributed to several books and written many reviews of articles and books. Among her honors and awards are several competitive grants to support research, additional training and a variety of programs.

Paul Muneta*Professor Emeritus of Food Science*

Paul Muneta has been active as a teacher and researcher in the field of agricultural chemistry and food science since he came to the University of Idaho in 1959, most recently in studies of enzymatic blackening of potatoes. He holds a B.S. degree from Montana State University and a Ph.D. from Cornell University. He is a member of American Chemical Society; American Federation of Teachers; Idaho Academy of Science; Inland Empire section of the Institute of Food Technologists; International Association of Milk, Food and Environmental Sanitarians; Phi Kappa Phi; Potato Association of America; and is a Fellow in the American Institute of Chemists. Muneta has written many technical articles for publication in scientific journals. He also has been active as a reviewer of articles for technical journals. He also has served UI as a member of a variety of committees.

Arthur D. Partridge*Professor Emeritus of Forest Resources*

The educator who has taught many of the courses offered in the forest resource program over his 37 years with the University of Idaho is retiring. Arthur Partridge came to UI in 1960. He has served as the university's expert for forest disease and insect questions. He has served as major professor for many graduate students during his career. He holds a B.S. in forestry from the University of Maine and master of science and doctor of philosophy degrees in botany, specializing in plant pathology, from the University of New Hampshire. He is a member of American Mycological Society; American Phytopathological Society; American Forestry Association; Wilderness Society; American Association for the Advancement of Science; American Botanical Society; Idaho Academy of Science; Northwest Scientific Association; National Geographic Society; Forest Watch; Alliance for the Wild Rockies; and Forest Reform Network. He has written many technical papers for publication and professional journals. Among his honors and awards are an Outstanding Educators of America Award; listing in "Who's Who in America" for 27 years; listing in "American Men and Women of Science" for 25 years; Sigma Xi; Xi Sigma Pi; and a commendation from the Idaho Talented and Gifted Children's Program.

Stephen L. Peebles*Extension Professor Emeritus*

Helping ranchers solve problems relating to animal production has been the focus of Stephen L. Peebles' nearly 40 years with the University of Idaho. He has worked as an extension agent in Adams, Clark, Fremont, Jefferson and Madison counties, where his work centered on rangelands and meat animals. He is a member of Future Farmers of America; Idaho County Agents Association; National County Agents Association; Society for Range Management International and its Idaho section; and Squanto. Peebles has been active in his community and church. He also helped write an environmental impact statement for Little Lost Birch Creek and a 10-year forest plan for Targhee National Forest. Among his honors and awards are the Clark Soil Conservation District

CITATIONS - RETIREMENTS

Certificate of Merit; a Distinguished Service Award from the State of Idaho for work during and after the Teton flood; FFA Recognition Award; membership in Epsilon Sigma Phi-Theta Chapter; and 10-, 20- and 30- year U.S. Department of Agriculture Honor Awards.

Forrest E. Sears

Professor Emeritus of Theatre Arts

Many people in Idaho will remember Forrest Sears for his directing and production skills during his 31 years with the University of Idaho Department of Theatre Arts. He has taught many courses offered by the department and been major professor for many directing and acting students. He came to UI in 1966 from the University of Pittsburgh where he studied for a doctoral degree. Sears operated his own school of drama, Sears-Whiteside School of Drama in San Francisco for two years, then served as teacher of drama and English at Turlock Union High School, Turlock, Calif., before going to Pittsburgh, Penn., to work as teacher, director and actor at the Pittsburgh Playhouse. He holds a B.A. in theatre arts from University of Redlands and completed work for a master of fine arts degree in play directing at Yale Drama School in 1958. He is a member of the American Theatre Association; Actors' Equity Association; Rocky Mountain Theatre Association; Northwest Drama Conference; Theatre Alpha Phi; Idaho Theatre Association; and Idaho Speech and Theatre. He has written several articles for publication in professional journals. Among his honors and awards are listed many teaching, acting and directing jobs that led to regional or national awards.

Jean C. Showell

Extension Professor Emerita

Many Oneida County people have useful skills they might not otherwise have been able to learn, thanks to the long-time efforts of Jean Showell. She has worked in the Idaho Cooperative Extension Service since she joined the UI faculty in 1980. Prior to that, she taught in Box Elder and Logan, Utah, schools. Both her B.S. degree in clothing and textiles and her master of education in instructional technology are from Utah State University. She also holds several advanced study certificates from USU. During her career, she has prepared many special programs of interest to Idaho homemakers and has been active in 4-H. She is a member of the Society for Adolescence; Idaho Association of Extension Home Economists; National Association of Extension Home Economists; National Association for the Education of Young Children; and American Home Economics Association. Among her honors and awards are the National Association of Extension Home Economists Award for a Packaged Program and the Marian Hepworth Award.

Peter L. Siems

Professor Emeritus of Geology

Known throughout the state for his work on prospecting and mining methods, Peter Siems is retiring. He first came to UI in 1965. Siems holds a B.S. in petrology and mineralogy/chemistry from Chelsea College of Science and Technology, University of London and earned a doctor of science in geology and geochemistry from the Colorado School of Mines in 1967. He has worked for several mining companies as a summer consultant during his years at UI. He is a member of American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers; Association of Exploration Geochemists; Geological Society of America; Geological Society of London; Institution of Mining and Metallurgy; Society of Economic Geologists; Northwestern Mining Association; and is a registered professional geologist in Idaho. He has written many articles about his research for publication in scholarly journals and for meeting presentations. Among his honors and awards are County of Sussex University scholarship; research scholarship from Colorado School of Mines; Shell Companies Foundation Fellowship; A.L. Day Research Award of the Geological Society of America; Geochron's Annual K-Ar research grant; Sigma Xi grant in aid of research award; and a National Science Foundation Summer Institute Fellowship.

Roderick Sprague

Professor Emeritus of Anthropology

One of Idaho's experts on the state's early history is retiring. Roderick Sprague has been active as a field anthropologist, exploring sites yielding artifacts that help tell the story of Idaho's Native Americans and early settlers. He also has served as department administrator, teacher and director of the Alfred Bowers Laboratory of Anthropology since he came here in 1967. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees in anthropology from Washington State University and completed a Doctor of Philosophy degree in anthropology at the University of Arizona in 1967. He is a member of Society for American Archaeology; American Association for the Advancement of Science; American Anthropological Association; Sigma Xi; Northwest Scientific Association; Society for Historical Archaeology; Idaho Academy of Science; Society for post-Medieval Archaeology; Council on America's Military Past-U.S.A.; and Phi Kappa Phi. He has written many scholarly articles for publication in a variety of professional journals. Among his honors and awards are a 1986 University of Idaho Library Faculty Award for Outstanding Service and a UI chapter Sigma Xi Published Research Paper Faculty Award.

Charles J. Thompson

Professor Emeritus of Physical Education

In his 32 years at the University of Idaho, Charles Thompson has influenced hundreds of physical education students who enrolled in his classes. In addition to his teaching duties, he has been active in area swimming programs. He holds a B.S. degree from Wisconsin State University, LaCrosse and an M.S. from Indiana University. He also has taken advanced graduate courses at Brigham Young University, UI and Washington State University. Before coming to Idaho, he worked as an elementary, high school and community college physical education instructor and coach. He is a member of the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education and Recreation; the Idaho Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation; and Palouse Square Dance Callers Association. He has written several professional papers for use as program guides and publication in professional journals. He received a 1982 Alumni Award for Excellence.

By noting certain features of a person's apparel, it is possible to learn several things about his or her academic status: the level of the degree attained, the branch of learning in which it was earned, and the institution.

Gowns—

The gowns differ according to the level of the degree. The sleeves are the principal indicator—gowns of doctors have round, bell-shaped sleeves; those of masters have long, closed sleeves that now open at the wrist; and bachelors have long, pointed sleeves. Doctoral gowns have distinctive velvet facing around the collar and down the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve.

Hoods—

The size of the hood also varied according to the degree. Hoods of bachelors are only three feet long (they are rarely seen today and not worn at Idaho). A master's hood is three and one-half feet long, and a doctor's is four feet in length and has side panels. It is from the colors adorning the hood that one can learn two other facts: the hood is lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree (silver and gold, of course, signifying the University of Idaho) and it is trimmed with velvet of a color denoting the wearer's branch of learning. Following are the colors that correspond to the advanced degrees granted by the University of Idaho:

Doctor of Philosophy	dark blue
Doctor of Education, Specialist in Education, and Master of Education	light blue
Juris Doctor	purple
Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (conferred through Washington State University)	gray
Master of Arts and Master of Arts in Teaching	white
Master of Science and Master of Natural Science	golden yellow
Master of Architecture	violet
Master of Business Administration	drab
Master of Engineering	orange
Master of Fine Arts	brown
Master of Forestry	rust
Master of Music	pink
Master of Public Administration	peacock blue

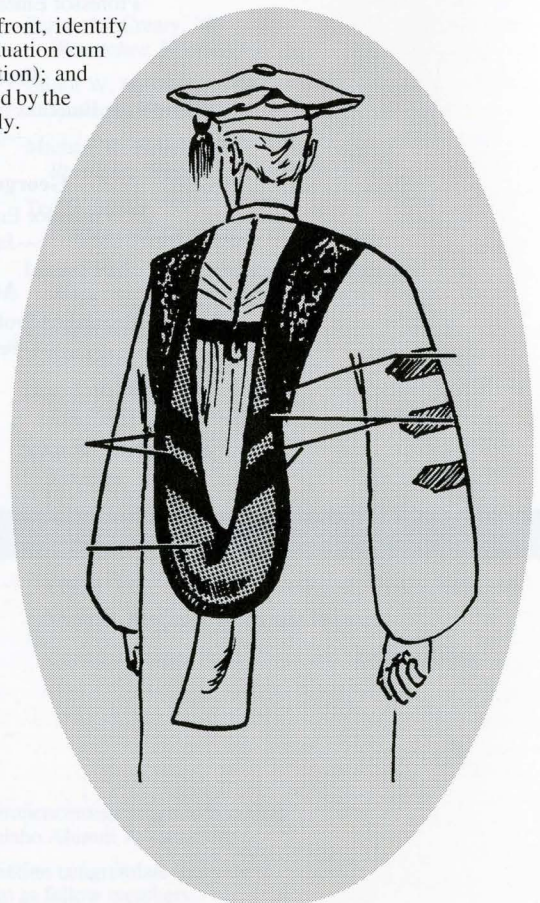

Colors for disciplines not cited above are:

Agriculture	maize
Dentistry	lilac
Economics	copper
Home Economics	maroon
Journalism	crimson
Library Science	lemon
Medicine	green
Nursing	apricot
Pharmacy	olive green
Physical Education	sage green
Public Health	salmon pink
Social Work	citron
Speech	silver gray
Theology	scarlet

Honor Cords—

Honor Cords, worn around the neck and hanging loosely down the front, identify students who are graduating with honors: bronze cords designate graduation cum laude (with distinction); silver, magna cum laude (with great distinction); and gold, summa cum laude (with highest distinction). The cords are provided by the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi and are worn on this one occasion only.

The University of Idaho adopted a doctoral gown of its own in 1989. The silver gown has a panel and sleeve bars of black velvet outlined in antique gold. The beret styled soft cap is patterned after the Cambridge version instead of the traditional Oxford-style mortarboard. The cap and gown were designed by Emeritus Professor Edmund Chavez in the university's centennial year.

Cry Room

A cry room for infants needing seclusion is available in the pressbox of the south concourse.

First-Aid Station

A first-aid station, with an EMT in attendance, is located at the center of the south concourse.

Restrooms are located near the center of the south concourse.

Academic Apparel Return

At the conclusion of each college commencement recognition ceremony, graduates must return rented gowns and hoods to a designated table at each college site.

Photography

Image Studios, 222 Troy Road, Moscow (208-882-5594), will provide the photography for the 1997 Commencement. The studio will photograph each student at the individual college ceremonies and mail a free color proof to each student when an address is provided.
