GUEST SPEAKERS

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – MOSCOW

Kirstin W. Larson '91, Businesswoman and Member of the University of Idaho Foundation, Inc., Board of Directors

Kirstin Larson is the very model of how possibilities are created through lifelong learning. She has successfully blended a background in business and marketing in the computer software industry with a new career in the world of art.

Ms. Larson earned a Bachelor of Science in Business degree from the University of Idaho in 1991, and then worked in international marketing for Microsoft Corporation in Redmond, Washington. As a group product manager for the Desktop Applications Division, she helped to develop marketing strategies for Microsoft Office and Excel software programs while both were in development, and before each became household names. She also served as director of Brand Strategy for Microsoft and director of Marketing for MSN.

Ms. Larson retired from Microsoft when she and her husband, Bob '91, started their family. On a vacation in California, the Larsons purchased a piece of art and found themselves with a new hobby; collecting art. Classes in art history followed, and as their knowledge of art and local artists grew, so did their art collection.

In 2006, the Larsons' hobby entered a new phase when they started their own company, FIND Art Consulting Services. The company grew out of their personal experiences and apprehensions as beginning art collectors. FIND Art assists novice art collectors by bringing them into contact with emerging local artists. The artistic matchmaking has helped to create a more supportive and vibrant local art economy.

Kirstin and Bob Larson now provide leadership to the arts as members of the Kirkland Arts Council, the Kirkland Performance Center and the Kirkland Arts Center. Ms. Larson also provides volunteer leadership to the University of Idaho as a member of the board of directors of the University of Idaho Foundation, Inc.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – COEUR D'ALENE

Paul Anderson, retired Coeur d'Alene Area Manager, Avista Utilities

Paul Anderson joined Washington Water Power – now Avista Utilities – in 1965 and spent the next 42 years with the company working in communities in northern Idaho and northeastern Washington. He retired this year after serving as Avista's Coeur d'Alene area manager.

During his career, Mr. Anderson worked in Avista's Colville, Washington, district, and the St. Maries, Silver Valley and Coeur d'Alene districts in Idaho. In each community, he exhibited a deep dedication to community service and leadership.

He has been president of the Kettle Falls Lions Club, St. Maries Kiwanis and the Coeur d'Alene Rotary, in addition to being a member of the Spokane and Colville Jaycees. He has provided leadership to the Stevens County Mental Health and Retardation board of directors and the Panhandle Council – Boy Scouts of America board. Mr. Anderson also was the chair of the Economic Advisory Council for both Gov. Phil Batt and Gov. Dirk Kempthorne.

Mr. Anderson has served on the board of directors for the Idaho Community Foundation, the North Idaho Health Network and was chair of the Kootenai Medical Center Foundation board. He currently serves as a trustee for the Kootenai Health District and is vice chair of the Finance/Audit Committee.

His efforts to improve the communities in which he has lived have not gone unnoticed. The Coeur d'Alene Chamber of Commerce selected him for the Bob McNabb Volunteer of the Year Award, the Ed Abbott Community Service Award and the 1995 Distinguished Citizen of the Year Award. In 1992, he was named Post Falls Citizen of the Year. He has received the Boy Scout Silver Beaver Award, and in 2007, Mr. Anderson received the Inland Northwest Partners Economic Development Lifetime Achievement Award.

Mr. Anderson attended the University of Montana where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics. He also completed the University of Idaho's Public Utilities Executive Course.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – IDAHO FALLS

Sylvia Medina '93, President and CEO of North Wind, Inc.

Sylvia Medina is president and CEO of North Wind, Inc., an Idaho Falls-based company with expertise in environmental consulting, professional technical services and construction. The company was incorporated in 1997, and since has grown to more than 300 employees with 19 offices in the U.S.

North Wind's sustained growth since inception, coupled with Ms. Medina's corporate vision to positively impact the environment, has drawn recognition and awards. In 2007, Ms. Medina received the Fast Five Award from Women Impacting Public Policy and the Protégé of the Year Award from the Department of Energy.

In addition, in 2007 DiversityBusiness.Com gave North Wind three #1 ratings as:

- Top Diversity Owned Businesses in Idaho;
- Top Small Businesses in Idaho; and
- Top Woman Owned Business in Idaho.

The company also ranked #40 in the listing of Top 500 Small Businesses in the U.S.

Ms. Medina is a 1993 graduate of the University of Idaho, where she earned her master's degree in interdisciplinary studies – waste management.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – BOISE

Pat McMurray '70, Past President of the Idaho Region, Wells Fargo Bank

After a 37-year career in financial services, Pat McMurray retired in December 2007 from his position as President of the Idaho Region for Wells Fargo Bank. Mr. McMurray started his career as a management trainee with First Security Bank of Idaho in 1971, and was named president of the bank in 1988. First Security merged with Wells Fargo in 2000.

In addition, Mr. McMurray was a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco's Salt Lake City branch from 1996-2002.

He is a 1970 graduate of the University of Idaho and received a bachelor's degree in business finance. Mr. McMurray completed additional graduate work at the National Graduate School of Commercial Lending at the University of Oklahoma and the Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington.

Mr. McMurray has given his time and talents to the University of Idaho as a former chairman of the University of Idaho Foundation. He has been recognized by the University with the Alumni Association Silver and Gold Award in 1995 and the Jim Lyle Distinguished Alumni Award in 2004.

A Boise native, Mr. McMurray has a distinguished record of service to the community. He is the past vice chairman of the board of directors for the Idaho Community Reinvestment Corporation and past president of the Boise Public Schools Education Foundation. He also served as chairman of the Boise Art Museum board and was chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory board. Currently, Mr. McMurray is a member of the board of trustees of St. Luke's Regional Medical Center and is a member of the boards of directors of the Idaho Business Council and the Idaho Business Coalition for Educational Excellence.

Other community service leadership roles include serving on the YMCA Camp at Horsethief Reservoir Major Gifts Campaign, as well as the campaign leadership committees for Out of Africa/Zoo Boise and the Valley Initiative for Prosperity economic development project.

In 2000, Mr. McMurray was honored as the Top Manager of the Year by the Sales and Marketing Executives of Boise.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – MOSCOW, COLLEGE OF LAW

Honorable B. Lynn Winmill, Chief Judge, United States District Court for the District of Idaho

Judge B. Lynn Winmill was appointed a United States District Judge for the District of Idaho by President William J. Clinton in 1995.

Judge Winmill graduated from Idaho State University in 1974 and from Harvard Law School in 1977. He practiced law in Denver, Colorado, from 1977 to 1979, and in Pocatello from 1979 to 1987. Judge Winmill was appointed a district judge for the Sixth Judicial District of the state of Idaho in 1987, and served as Administrative District Judge for the Sixth Judicial District from 1992 to 1995.

Judge Winmill was an adjunct professor at Idaho State University from 1991 to 1995 and taught courses in criminal procedure and legal history. He is a member of the Idaho State Bar Association and the Sixth District Bar Association. As a state District Judge, he chaired the Idaho Evidence Rules Advisory Committee from 1992 to 1995.

Judge Winmill has participated in the Idaho Humanities Council, the Idaho Volunteer Lawyer Program, the Idaho State University Alumni Board, and the Boy Scouts of America. Judge Winmill also is an instructor for the Citizens' Law Academy, a community outreach program sponsored by the Idaho State Bar's Public Information Committee.

In addition to his regular Chief Judge duties within the District of Idaho, Judge Winmill serves on the Information Technology Committee of the U.S. Judicial Conference. This committee provides general policy recommendations, planning and oversight of the judiciary information technology program. Judge Winmill also is a member of the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council.

HONORARY DEGREES

Honorary degrees may be awarded to a person deserving of honor by virtue of scholarly distinction, noteworthy public service or significant contributions to the state of Idaho. In the selection of candidates for honorary degrees, preference is given to those who are Idaho residents or University of Idaho graduates.

Duane B. Hagadone, Businessman, Community Leader and Philanthropist

Duane Hagadone is a third generation Idahoan who rose from being the neighborhood paper boy to chairman and CEO of his own highly successful and diversified corporation, the Hagadone Corporation, based in his hometown of Coeur d'Alene.

His business interests have grown to include newspapers, publishing, property management and hospitality services. He is one of the state's largest private employers with more than 2,500 employees in Idaho, and the Hagadone Newspapers Company publishes 17 newspapers in Idaho, Montana, Washington and Wisconsin.

Few people can be said to have changed the course of a community and region, but Duane Hagadone is such a person. He has taken northern Idaho from a resource-extraction based economy to a thriving resource-based tourism powerhouse.

Mr. Hagadone envisioned a world-class destination resort on the shores of Lake Coeur d'Alene, and in 1986, the Coeur d'Alene Resort opened to international acclaim. Conde Nast Traveler magazine has cited it as "America's Top Mainland Resort." A golf course with the world's only floating green opened in 1991 and Golf Digest called it "America's most beautiful resort golf course." The Hagadone Hospitality Company continues to enhance the tourism amenities in Coeur d'Alene and northern Idaho by operating restaurants, marine facilities, cruise boats, a shopping plaza and other facilities.

In 2004, the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans, Inc., presented Mr. Hagadone with the Horatio Alger Award. The award bears the name of the popular author, Horatio Alger Jr., whose tales of overcoming adversity through unyielding perseverance and basic moral principles captivated the public in the late 19th century. Through the association's scholarship program, Mr. Hagadone has endowed 60 annual scholarships for Idaho students to attend colleges and universities in Idaho.

In addition, he has been inducted into the University of Idaho Alumni Hall of Fame and the Idaho Hall of Fame, and he received the 2005 Idaho Businessman of the Year Award from Idaho State University and the 2006 Idaho Business Leader of the Year Award.

Duane and his wife, Lola, have been active supporters of community organizations, including the Kootenai Humane Society, the Coeur d'Alene Library Foundation, the Coeur d'Alene Summer Theatre and United Way. Mr. Hagadone was twice the chairman of the Kootenai County United Way Fund, in 1964 and 2007, and he was the founder of Job Plus, an organization to help attract new businesses and jobs to the Coeur d'Alene area. He currently is honorary chairman of the committee to build a new Boys and Girls Club for Kootenai County.

In recognition of a lifetime of leadership and dedication to the state and region, the University of Idaho is proud to confer upon Duane B. Hagadone the degree of Doctor of Business Administration.

Roger D. Ottmar, Scientist and Educator

Roger Ottmar is a research forester with the Fire and Environmental Research Applications Team at the Pacific Wildland Fire Sciences Laboratory in Seattle, Washington. His nearly 30-year career has been devoted to fire science, education and outreach.

Mr. Ottmar is respected by both scientists and natural resource managers throughout the Northwest, the nation and the world for his pioneering work on the physical properties of wildland fuels and how they contribute to fire behavior, smoke production and atmospheric pollution. His research interests are in fire effects, fuel consumption, fuel loading quantification, emissions production and impacts on air quality and human health.

He has authored more than 100 research publications and served as the principal investigator on more than 75 research projects. To many, Mr. Ottmar is the national leader in fire science application, and a role model for how scientists can combine research with real-world applications of that research. In 2006, he received the Forest Service Chief's Award for Technology Transfer for his effective efforts in extending advances in fire science to natural resource managers to allow them to make wise, science-based decisions.

Mr. Ottmar actively contributes to several University of Idaho courses and has hosted workshops in Moscow and nationally on how to measure fuels and smoke emissions from fires.

Mr. Ottmar earned a bachelor of arts degree in secondary education/geology from Eastern Washington University in 1973 and a Bachelor of Science degree in Atmospheric Science from the University of Washington in 1978. He received a Master of Science in Forest Management with a specialization in fire science from the University of Washington in 1980.

Mr. Ottmar is a member of the Society of American Foresters, American Meteorological Society, Ecological Restoration Society, International Association of Wildland Fire and Tall Timbers Society.

He has received 11 USDA Forest Service Certificates of Merit, the Pacific Northwest Station Technology Transfer Award in 1991 and 2006, the 2006 National Fire Plan Management Award, the 2002 Outstanding Service in Fire Management Award, the 1999 Pacific Northwest Region Excellence in Prescribed Fire Award and the 1993 Pacific Northwest Research Station Vision Award.

Mr. Ottmar has been described as "a rare individual [who is] respected by his scientific peers seeking to understand the properties of fuels most relevant to fire management; the land managers on the ground who rely on his work in their daily lives; and government administrators who establish and execute policies aimed at forest health and fuels management."

In recognition of his many contributions to the advancement of fire science and management, the University of Idaho is proud to confer upon Roger D. Ottmar the degree of Doctor of Natural Resources.

D. Tony Stewart, Political Scientist and Human Rights Activist

Tony Stewart is a professor, lecturer, author and courageous community activist. His remarkable career of public service, human rights activism and enthusiastic educational outreach has distinguished him as "one of those rare spirits who combines the finest qualities of civility and gentility with practiced raw courage and moral clarity."

Born in Murphy, North Carolina, Professor Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences with a concentration in government from Western Carolina University and a master's degree in political science from the University of Tennessee. In addition, he began graduate work toward a doctoral program in political science at Washington State University.

In 1970, he began teaching political science and advising pre-law students at North Idaho College, where he served for 14 years as chair of the Division of Social Sciences and is currently a tenured faculty member.

Professor Stewart founded and continues to chair the North Idaho College Popcorn Forum Lecture Series, a signature event for the college and community. Since 1970, the series has featured more than 540 lectures, panels and workshops with personalities that include the late Vice President Hubert Humphrey, former Senator Howard Baker, Buckminster Fuller and Carole King. Stewart also introduced "North Idaho College TV-Public Forum," that airs on six PBS television stations in the Northwest and Canada. He has served as program producer and moderator for more than 1,700 weekly programs on wide-ranging topics that have elevated the quality of public discourse.

In the 1980s, Professor Stewart was a pivotal leader in the decades-long grassroots campaign to promote human rights in Idaho and the Northwest at a time when the region faced rising tensions from a menacing white supremacist threat. He played a key strategic role in the pitched community battle to counteract the Aryan Nations and helped construct an impressive regional network of human rights organizations and task forces that continue to monitor hate groups and raise awareness about human rights today. He was a founding member of the Kootenai County Task Force on Human Relations and the five-state Northwest Coalition Against Malicious Harassment, and served terms as president of both organizations. He also served as founding board member of the Human Rights Education Institute, is vice chair of the North Idaho College Human Rights and Diversity Committee, and has served for 18 years as faculty adviser of the North Idaho Human Equality Club.

In 2006, Professor Stewart was awarded the Idaho Humanities Council Award for Outstanding Achievement in the Humanities, the latest in a number of prestigious awards granted over the years in recognition of his ongoing dedication to human rights awareness.

His tireless civic, journalistic and academic efforts to promote tolerance, civil discourse and human rights awareness have earned him noted accomplishments regionally as well as nationally. Therefore, in recognition of a lifetime of service to the state and region, the University of Idaho is proud to confer upon Doyle Tony Stewart the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

The President's Medallion is presented to individuals who have made significant contributions to the cultural, economic, scientific and/or social advancement of Idaho and its people, and have provided exceptional service to the state or nation that has influenced the well-being of humankind. At the May 2008 Commencement, we are honoring four extremely deserving individuals.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – COEUR D'ALENE

Lidwina Dirne, Educator and Health Care Advocate

Lidwina Dirne is a member of the Catholic lay community, Mary of the Annunciation, and has lived her life in service to others.

Born in the Netherlands, Ms. Dirne experienced the anxiety and danger of the German invasion and occupation during World War II. It resulted in a greater appreciation of life and in a strong desire to dedicate her life to others.

She earned a degree at Sacré Coeur, a Catholic college for teachers, and worked as a school principal and instructor in the teachers college. She also earned a master's degree in religious studies from Loyola University in Chicago, and did post-graduate studies at the University of Notre Dame. In 1957, she responded to a call for volunteers and immigrated to Canada, living in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Ms. Dirne came to Coeur d'Alene in 1971 to set up a religious studies program for the two local Catholic parishes and became a citizen of the United States in 1977. She also continued to be of service to the community. She was a facilitator for a divorced and widowed support group and learned of one member who was ill but unable to afford health care. That situation led Ms. Dirne to focus her energies on providing health care assistance to those in need.

"You can't do anything alone," says Ms. Dirne. In 1984, she brought together other community members to shape a vision for a volunteer health care clinic. "The community was very supportive and we were able to do wonderful things," she says.

Lake City Health Care opened in 1989 with one volunteer doctor, but grew to include 19 physicians, along with dozens of volunteer nurses and clinic staff. The facility has been renamed the Dirne Community Health Center in her honor. The center provides invaluable services to the community. In addition, University of Idaho counseling students are able to complete their internships in the center's caring environment.

In 2006, Ms. Dirne was recognized by then-Governor Dirk Kempthorne with a Community Brightest Star Award.

Ms. Dirne remains active in her determination to live for others. She continues to facilitate the widowed support group, leads a weekly Bible class, is active in the interfaith group, Diakonia, and serves on the Board of Directors of the Dirne Community Health Center.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – IDAHO FALLS

Clifford A. Brady, Jr., Businessman and Advocate for Education

Cliff Brady has had a profound impact on his community and the state of Idaho as a businessman, civic leader and advocate for education.

After serving in the U.S. Air Force, Mr. Brady began his business career with Beneficial Finance Company. He later started his own business, Brady's Super Home Store in Jerome, and moved the business to Idaho Falls in 1965. The store became part of eastern Idaho's culture, and a second store was opened in Pocatello. In 2001, Mr. Brady retired and two of his sons, Steve and Brad Brady, now lead the business. In 2005, his sons opened a third store in Twin Falls.

Mr. Brady has been a tireless supporter of the regional business community. He served as president of the Greater Idaho Falls Chamber of Commerce and was twice selected as the chamber's Ambassador of the Year. He is a four-time recipient of the Wayne Hammond Award for service to the chamber.

Mr. Brady assisted in the creation of the Better Business Bureau in eastern Idaho. He served on the bureau's board of directors for eight years and in 2005, he received the organization's Founder Award. Mr. Brady also has been honored by the United Way, and served as president of the Idaho Falls Symphony, served on the Board of the Idaho Falls Opera Theater, and on the YMCA board of directors. He is a charter member of Coalition Twenty-One, Partnership for Science and Technology, and the City Club. He feels strongly about supporting the Museum of Idaho and the Arts in Idaho Falls, including the Colonial Theatre.

In 2006, Mr. Brady was inducted into the Vacuum Industry Hall of Fame, by the Vacuum Dealers Trade Association. There he joins Boss Hoover, James Kirby, Elias Howe, Isaac Singer, Don Aslett, David Oreck, and many others.

Education also is a priority to Mr. Brady. "I believe with all my heart that education is the key to a healthy and vibrant community," he says.

As a member of the Chamber of Commerce Education and Legislative committees, he has been an advocate for education and has lobbied for strong funding for education. Mr. Brady is a member of the Eastern Idaho Technical College Foundation Board and also serves on the college's Business Advisory Board and Technical Advisory Board. He is setting up a scholarship at EITC that will be known as the "Brady Family Joshua D. Clifford Memorial Scholarship" in honor of his deceased grandson. In addition, he is a member of the University Place Advisory Council, and has been honored with the Idaho Falls Friend of Education Award.

Mr. Brady has found one activity that blends his interests in business and education, and puts him in the role of teacher and mentor. He is a member of SCORE, an organization that advises young men and women in the community on how to establish a business, and teaches them the fundamentals of entrepreneurship.

In retirement, Mr. Brady and his wife, Ruth, live in three different states during the year. They now also are active supporters of the arts in St. George, Utah.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO – BOISE

Tom '58 and Alice Hennessey

Born and brought up in Massachusetts, Alice Hennessey grew to love the West as a student at the University of Colorado, Boulder, where she graduated cum laude in history and general studies. After a year's graduate work at the Harvard-Radcliffe Program in Business Administration, she came – sight unseen – to Boise in 1958 to become secretary to the CEO of the fledgling Boise Cascade Corporation. She became an officer of the company in 1971 and retired in 1996 as senior vice president with responsibility for human resources and corporate relations.

After retiring, Mrs. Hennessey spent eight years as president of the Idaho Community Foundation, a statewide non-profit she had helped found, which is dedicated to enriching life's quality throughout Idaho. She currently is on the board of St. Luke's Health System, a member of the Idaho Humanities Council, and a founding member of the Idaho Women's Charitable Foundation. She has previously served on the board of St. Luke's Boise/Meridian, the Boise Art Museum, Junior Achievement, the advisory board of Ballet Idaho, has served on the Idaho Judicial Council, the Legislative Compensation Commission, and as a member of the University of Idaho Foundation. She also has been chairman of the Boise Area Chamber of Commerce and campaign chairman and chairman of the board for United Way of Ada County.

Mrs. Hennessey has received numerous awards and honors for her work, including the Ralph J. Comstock Light of Philanthropy Award from the St. Luke's Health Foundation and the Idaho Statesman Distinguished Citizen award. She was awarded honorary degrees by Michigan Technological University and the College of Idaho.

Tom Hennessey was born in Colorado and came to Idaho in 1935 with his family, which – like so many other agricultural families in those Depression days – was on the move, looking for a better life. The apple blossoms around Emmett persuaded the family to stop in Idaho rather than going on to their intended destination – Yakima, Washington.

His dad was a cattle dealer, and Mr. Hennessey grew up around livestock auctions, where he was fascinated by the chanting of the auctioneers. He attended the College of Idaho for a year and then transferred to the University of Idaho as a business major. His college career was interrupted when he was drafted toward the end of the Korean War, and the war ended while he was on a ship en route to Korea.

After his Army discharge, Mr. Hennessey worked with his father in the cattle business and worked on a dude ranch in Arizona before deciding to finish his degree. He returned to the University of Idaho, and was named the outstanding business student in his graduating class.

Mr. Hennessey then joined Boise Cascade's corrugated container division, where he rose to sales manager before deciding that corporate life was not for him. He returned to the cattle business that was his first love.

Since retiring from the cattle business, Mr. Hennessey has served on the boards of the Bishop Kelly Foundation, the Boise Art Museum, the Humphreys Diabetes Center, and the Children's Home.

Mr. Hennessey also has been a volunteer auctioneer for more than 40 years. He has donated his talents on behalf of dozens of Idaho organizations and helped them to raise millions of dollars in the process. The Boise Metro Chamber of Commerce recognized his work with its Community Service Award.

Tom and Alice Hennessey met while both worked at Boise Cascade, and they were married a year to the day after she arrived in Idaho. Their first date was a University of Idaho football game played in Boise – a portent of their subsequent long commitment to the University. They have three children and eight grandchildren.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

ALUMNI HALL OF FAME 2008

Created in 1962, the Alumni Association Hall of Fame recognizes individuals who have achieved national or international distinction through their accomplishments and leadership.

Dayaldas T. Meshri of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is a 1968 graduate from the University of Idaho. He is president and chief executive officer of Advance Research Chemicals, one of the largest producers worldwide of custom fluorine-based chemicals. He founded the international company in 1987. A native of India, Meshri earned a doctorate degree in chemistry at the University of Idaho, and completed post-doctoral studies at Cornell University. Meshri, an active philanthropist, serves on numerous boards of directors including the Oklahoma Center for the Advancement of Science and Technology (OCAST), Tulsa Global Alliance, Alliance of Sindhi Associations of Americas, Inc. and the American Institute of Chemists, among others.

Otis Livingston of South Orange, New Jersey, received a bachelor of science degree in telecommunications from the University of Idaho in 1991. He is a sports anchor for "Today in New York" on WNBC-TV in New York City. During his career, Livingston has covered major signature sporting events, including the Olympic Games, Stanley Cup Finals, the World Series and the U.S. Open Tennis Championship. He is remembered by Vandal fans for his leadership on the basketball court. The team captain helped lead Idaho to the 1990 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. He was a member of the First Team All-Big Sky Conference squad. As a Vandal athlete, he was recognized numerous times for his success on the basketball court, including third in the nation in assists. His commitment to success continues today, both personally and professionally. Livingston is involved with the New Jersey Music Workshop for the Arts, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Have a Heart Foundation.

Todd Kuiken of Oak Park, Illinois, attended the University of Idaho from 1978-1981. He went on to receive a bachelor of science degree in biomedical engineering at Duke University. He later received a M.D. and Ph.D. from Northwestern University. He is a global leader in the design and implementation of new prosthetic systems. Kuiken currently is a researcher at Northwestern and works for the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago. He has received numerous awards and been recognized for his development of thought-controlled prosthetic devices. He was named Chicagoan of the Year by Chicago Magazine in 2006.

Additional participation with and service to the University of Idaho Alumni Association Board of Directors includes: appointed representatives of SARb, ASUI, Vandal Scholarship Fund, University of Idaho Foundation and College of Agricultural and Life Sciences. The Alumni Relations Office also benefits greatly from the dedicated efforts of student employees and volunteers.

Each graduating student listed in this commencement program becomes a member of the University of Idaho Alumni Association. Please keep the Alumni Office informed of your career information and mailing address. The association officers and directors congratulate this year's graduates.

HONORS TO FACULTY/STAFF MEMBERS

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH OR CREATIVE ACTIVITY

Professor Peter Goodwin, Ph.D., Department of Civil Engineering

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

Professor Dale Graden, Ph.D., Department of History

Associate Professor Daniel M. Eveleth, Ph.D., Department of Management, Marketing and Operations

Professor Joseph F. Guenther, Ph.D., Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology

HOFFMAN AWARD IN TEACHING EXCELLENCE

Assistant Professor Michael Kroth, Ph.D., Department of Adult, Career and Technology Education

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN OUTREACH

Associate Professor Rula Awwad-Rafferty, Ph.D., Department of Architecture and Interior Design

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN ADVISING

Professor Jerome M. Fischer, Ph.D., Department of Adult, Career and Technology Education

Marc Skinner, Assistant to the Director, Department of Journalism and Mass Media

Bill L. Smith, Ph.D., Director, Martin School of International Studies

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO OUTSTANDING FACULTY AWARD

Professor Louis A. Perraud, Ph.D., Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

OUTSTANDING STUDENT ORGANIZATION ADVISER AWARD

Extension Professor Ronald L. Mahoney, Ph.D., Department of Forest Resources

JAMES A. BARNES MEMORIAL AWARD

Adrien Loehring, Greek Adviser, Dean of Students Office

DEAN D. THORNTON FACULTY FELLOWSHIP

Professor John L. Lawrence, Ph.D., Department of Management, Marketing and Operations

RODERICK M. STEELE DISTINGUISHED PROFESSORSHIP OF ACCOUNTING

Professor Teresa P. Gordon, Ph.D., Department of Accounting

A. DARIUS DAVIS FACULTY FELLOWSHIP

Professor Jeffrey J. Bailey, Ph.D., Department of Management, Marketing and Operations

Professor Jon R. Miller, Ph.D., Department of Economics, Finance and Information Systems

Associate Professor Michele L. O'Neill, Ph.D., Department of Economics, Finance and Information Systems

GRADUATE DEGREES

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES AND DEGREES PREVIOUSLY AWARDED

COLLEGE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

Established in 1925. Margrit von Braun, Ph.D., Dean

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

Nancy Sue Hill, Grangeville

Dissertation: "Health Occupation Teachers: An Exploration of Their Experiences in Their First Years of Teaching." Major Professor: Jerry R. McMurtry

Esther Wangui Tirima, Nairobi, Kenya

Dissertation: "A Study of the Educational Goodness of a GED Preparation Program in a Pacific Northwest Town Using Qualitative Research Methodology Portraiture." Major Professor: Jerry R. McMurtry

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

*Ryan Seamus Adams, Pocatello

Electrical Engineering. Dissertation: "Simulation, Design and Fabrication of Microwave Ferrite Components for Monostatic Radar Applications." Major Professor: Jeffrey L. Young

Christina Airhart, Plains, Montana

Microbiology, Molecular Biology and Biochemistry. Dissertation: "Toll-Like Receptor Agonists as Monotherapies and Vaccine Adjuvants for Pneumonic Plague." Major Professor: Scott Minnich

Shannon Milanowski Amberg, Grand Rapids, Michigan

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Public Perceptions of Aquaculture: Exploring the Influence of Mass Media and Role of Heuristics in Shaping Perceptions of Risks and Benefits of Farm-raised Fish." Major Professor: Troy E. Hall

Gina Rose Marie Armer, Idaho Falls

Education. Dissertation: "Mary Baker Eddy's Contribution to Adult Education: An Historical Biography." Major Professor: Laura B. Holyoke

Ashley M. Ater Kranov, Gooding

Education. Dissertation: "Challenges Facing Non-Native English Speaking Sciences and Engineering Graduate Assistants in Fulfilling their Writing Responsibilities: A Case Study Using the Delphi Methodology." Major Professor: James A. Gregson

Patryce Avsharian, Morrison, Colorado

Zoology. Dissertation: "Female Reproductive Decisions in Pronghorn: From Mate Choice to Maternal Expenditure." Major Professor: John A. Byers

*Jeffrey J. Barry, Boise

Civil Engineering. Dissertation: "Bed Load Transport in Gravel-Bed Rivers." Major Professor: John M. Buffington

James Nicholas Bernardini, Peoria, Arizona

Microbiology, Molecular Biology and Biochemistry. Dissertation: "Microbiology of Aquatic Environments: Characterizations of the Microbiotas of Municipal Water Supplies, the International Space Station Internal Active Thermal Control System's Heat Transport Fluid, and U.S. Space Shuttle Drinking Water." Major Professor: Ron L. Crawford

Stephen James Bent, New York, New York

Bioinformatics and Computational Biology. Dissertation: "Bacterial Diversity and Competition from the Population to the Community Level." Major Professor: Larry J. Forney

Heidi Bigler Cole, Cove, Oregon

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Increasing Fuel Reduction Research Use in USDA Forest Service Regions 1 and 6." Major Professor: James R. Fazio

*Rena Jane Bovee, Burley

Education. Dissertation: "Becoming a Teacher: A Collective Case Study of the First Semester of Being an Elementary Teacher." Major Professor: Mary E. Gardiner

Karla C. Bradley, Ellicott City, Maryland

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Curriculum Theory in Four Graduate Residencies in Environmental Education: A Critical Philosophical Inquiry." Major Professor: Steven J. Hollenhorst

Kevin Matthew Buck, Tacoma, Washington

Electrical Engineering. Dissertation: "Deep Submicron Greater than VDD Device and Circuit Design." Major Professor: Herbert L. Hess

Nathan Alan Burkepille, Duncannon, Pennsylvania

Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Factors Influencing Greater Sage-Grouse Chick Survival on the Upper Snake River Plain of Southern Idaho." Major Professor: Kerry Paul Reese

Sean Scott Burlile, Boise

Education. Dissertation: "The Experience of Transitioning from the Armed Forces to the Civilian Workforce as a Result of Service-Connected Disabilities." Major Professor: Martha Yopp

Yun Chen, Nantou, Taiwan

Education. Dissertation: "A Research Procedure and Study of Elementary Music Curriculum for Children with Special Needs in Inclusive Music Programs." Major Professor: N. Dale Gentry

McKay F. Christensen, Idaho Falls

Education. Dissertation: "Leader as Potentiator: A Mixed Method Study Exploring the Development of Higher Order Leadership in Adults." Major Professor: Michael S. Kroth

Richard Casey Cline, Boise

Education. Dissertation: "Teaching Key Competencies of Effective Construction Project Managers to Adults in Higher Education." Major Professor: Martha Yopp

Dana Michele Cotton, Perry, Georgia

Education. Dissertation: "A Personal Journey of an Educator in a Development Education Project: An Autobiographical and Critical Discourse Analysis." Major Professor: Karen Guilfoyle

Ruth Margaret Dahlquist, Kingsburg, California

Entomology. Dissertation: "Biology and Management of the Banana Weevil (Cosmopolites sordidus Germar) in the Socioeconomic and Agroecological Context of the Indigenous Territories of Talamanca, Costa Rica." Major Professor: Nilsa A. Bosque-Perez

Sandra Maria De Urioste Stone, Guatemala City, Guatemala

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Collaboration in Guatemalan Projected Area Management: Building Understanding and Capacity of Co-Management Organizations in the Regional Municipal Protected Area of Zunil." Major Professor: William James McLaughlin

Rita D. Dixon, Lewiston

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "A Metapopulation Model of White-headed Woodpecker in the Interior West." Major Professor: Edward O. Garton

*Shannon Marie Donovan, New Rochelle, New York

Environmental Science. Dissertation: "The Palouse: A Bioregional Approach for Assessing Sense of Place." Major Professor: J. D. Wulffhorst

*Deanna C. Dye, Driggs

Education. Dissertation: "The Effect of Specific Feedback on Critical Reflection of Physical Therapy Students During Internships." Major Professor: Lee Thomas Ostrom

*Barbara Ellen Endicott, Seattle, Washington

Computer Science. Dissertation: "A Methodology for Calibrating Forensic-Ready, Low Layer Network Devices." Major Professor: Deborah A. Frincke

*Susan Michele Esp, Boise

Education. Dissertation: "An Exploratory Case Study Examining and Describing the Barriers and Incentives to Utilizing Best Practices and Guiding Principles in Secondary School Substance Abuse Prevention Programs." Major Professor: Jerry R. McMurtry

Wendy Anne Estes-Zumpf, Bridgewater, Massachusetts

Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Dispersal and Gene Flow Among Pygmy Rabbit (Brachylagus idahoensis) Populations in Idaho and Southwestern Montana." Major Professor: Janet L. Rachlow

*Amon Brock Eubanks, Spokane, Washington

Education. Dissertation: "The Roles and Competencies of Career Entrepreneurs: Implications for Training and Career Development." Major Professor: Jerry R. McMurtry

Degrees Conferred Earlier

*August 17, 2007

December 14, 2007

The appearance of a name in this program is presumptive evidence of graduation and graduation honors; it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The academic transcript, signed and sealed by the proper university officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

- Mohammad Faheem, Lahore, Pakistan
Materials Science and Engineering. Dissertation: "Magnetoresistance in Nanoparticles." Major Professor: Keith A. Prisbrey
- *Alessandra Falcucci, Roma, Italy
Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Conservation of Large Carnivores in a Human Dominated Landscape: Habitat Models and Potential Distribution." Major Professor: Edward O. Garton
- Michael James Falkowski, Sullivan, Wisconsin
Natural Resources. Dissertation: "LiDAR Remote Sensing for Forest Ecosystem Inventory and Assessment." Major Professor: Paul E. Gessler
- *Gabrielle Rochelle Feldman, Los Gatos, California
Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Protecting Old Growth and Other Non-Timber Forest Values in Idaho's State Forests: A Policy Sciences Approach for Integrated Natural Resource Management." Major Professor: John J. O'Laughlin
- Lynn Kaye Fischer, Moscow
Education. Dissertation: "A Systems Theory Approach to Analyzing Community Rehabilitation Program Outcomes." Major Professor: Jerry LeRoy Tuchscherer
- David Jeffery Fox, Twin Falls
Education. Dissertation: "A Multiple Case Study of Community College Presidents: Perception of Leadership Demands and Competencies." Major Professor: Russell Alex Joki
- Sung-Hoon Gee, Masan, South Korea
Materials Science and Engineering. Dissertation: "Spherical Barium Ferrite Nanoparticles and Barium Ferrite Film." Major Professor: Yang Ki Hong
- Brian Anthony Gilbert, Veradale, Washington
Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Estimating, Monitoring and Modeling Elk Population Growth Rates and Densities in North-Central Idaho at Multiple Spatial and Temporal Scales." Major Professor: Edward O. Garton
- *Kelly Shane Goodwin, Rexburg
Education. Dissertation: "Gender Differences in Mathematics Self-Efficacy and Wisdom in Multiple-Choice Assessment." Major Professor: Lee Thomas Ostrom
- *Stanley Phillips Gotshall, Longview, Washington
Computer Science. Dissertation: "Evolutionary Training of a Biologically Plausible Spino-Neuromuscular System Model." Major Professor: Terence Soule
- Charles Kendall Grant, Rexburg
Education. Dissertation: "Educating Educators: Interpreting the Faculty Assessment." Major Professor: Roger Lee Scott
- *Gina Marie Gridley, Boise
Education. Dissertation: "Participation in an Online Basque Heritage Language Learning Program." Major Professor: Martha Yopp
- Amukela Mazithulgla Gwebu, Bulawayo, Zimbabwe
Education. Dissertation: "Beyond Testing: Cognitive Moral Reasoning and Ergogenic Aids." Major Professor: Sharon K. Stoll
- Ryan P. Hanavan, Orchard Park, New York
Entomology. Dissertation: "The Influence of Agricultural Practices and Diverse Perennial Habitats on the Biology and Ecology of the Pea Leaf Weevil, Stona lineatus (L.) (Coleoptera: Curculionidae)." Major Professor: Nilsa A. Bosque-Perez
- Travis W. Hanson, Victor
Animal Physiology. Dissertation: "Regulation of Milk Fat Synthesis Through Either Direct Administration or Endogenous Production of Conjugated Linoleic Acid." Major Professor: Mark A. McGuire
- Margaret Jean Harvey, Los Angeles, California
Natural Resources. Dissertation: "Bangladesh Gender Audit: A Feminist Case Study." Major Professor: William James McLaughlin
- Lynda Kay Hawkes, Rexburg
Education. Dissertation: "The Emerging Phenomenon of Aliteracy: The Lived Experience of Those Who Know How to Read, but Choose Not To." Major Professor: Rodney K. McConnell
- Beverly Joanne Hewett, Pocatello
Education. Dissertation: "Long Term Affiliation for Long Term Care." Major Professor: Karen Wilson Scott
- Crag Allen Hill, Moscow
Education. Dissertation: "Teaching Question Source and Discussion Behaviors to Improve Classroom Discourse." Major Professor: Georgia Johnson

MEDICAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON-WYOMING-ALASKA-MONTANA-IDAHO PROGRAM IN MEDICAL EDUCATION

Established in 1971. Andrew L. Turner, Ph.D., Director

Idaho students receiving Doctorates in Medicine from the University of Washington through participation in the WWAMI Medical Education Program:

Tyler Baker

Lindsay Barclay

Brock Bemis

Kimberly Campbell

Arzhang Fallahi

Derek Jackson

Richard Knight

Nicole Pressman-Schneider

Holly Sato

August Stein

Nathan Welch

Jonathon Wolf

In the WWAMI Medical Education Program, offered by the University of Washington School of Medicine and selected universities and communities in Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, Montana and Idaho, medical students from Idaho receive the first year of their medical training at the University of Idaho. Students attend classes at the University of Idaho and Washington State University, thus benefiting from a large group of instructors and varied selection of elective courses; laboratories and other facilities for individual work are available at both institutions. First-year students also have the opportunity to work with local physician-preceptors. Third and fourth year clinical rotations are also available in Idaho.

WASHINGTON-IDAHO REGIONAL PROGRAM IN VETERINARY MEDICINE

Established in 1974. Carl W. Hunt, Head of Animal and Veterinary Science

The University of Idaho cooperates with Washington State University in a program of veterinary medical education, research and service. In the program, students from Idaho take the first three years of professional training in veterinary medicine at Washington State University; faculty members from Idaho and WSU offer instruction in the professional and academic curricula. In the fourth year of the program, students receive part of the clinical training at the Caldwell, Idaho, veterinary medical facility.

By observing certain features of the academic apparel, it is possible to learn several things about the academic status of the scholar: the level of the degree attained, the branch of learning in which it was earned, and the college or university conferring the degree.

Gowns

The gowns differ according to the level of the degree. The sleeves are the principal indicator – gowns of bachelors have pointed sleeves; those of masters have oblong sleeves with an arc cut away at the front; and doctors have round, bell-shaped sleeves. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctoral gowns have distinctive velvet facing down the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve.

Caps

The color of the tassel worn on the cap varies with the level of degree. The bachelor's tassel represents the color appropriate to the major field of study; the master's and specialist's tassels are black; and the doctoral tassels are old gold.

Hoods

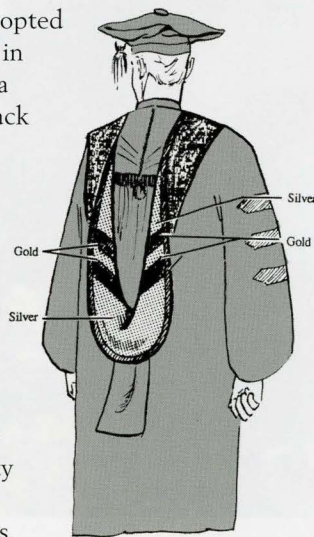

The length of the hood also varies according to the level of degree. The bachelor's gown is worn without a hood. A master's hood is three and one-half feet long, and a doctor's hood is four feet in length and has panels at the sides. It is from the colors adorning the hood that one can learn two other facts. Lining- the hood is lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree (silver and gold, signifying the University of Idaho). Trimming- the hood is trimmed with velvet of a color appropriate to the wearer's branch of learning. For example, the trimming for the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture is maize, representing agriculture, rather than golden yellow, representing science. (In the case of the Doctor of Philosophy degree, the dark blue color is used, representing the mastery of the discipline of learning and scholarship, regardless of the branch of learning.) Colors associated with the different disciplines are as follows:

Architecture (MArch)	Violet	Medicine	Green
Agriculture	Maize	Music	Pink
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White	Nursing	Apricot
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab	Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Dentistry	Lilac	Pharmacy	Olive Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russet	Science	Golden Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon	Veterinary Science (DVM)	Gray

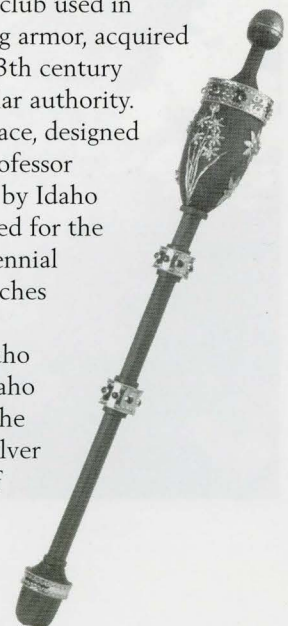

Honor Cords

Honor Cords, worn around the neck and hanging loosely down the front, identify students who are graduating with honors: gold, summa cum laude (with highest distinction); silver, magna cum laude (with great distinction); and bronze cords designate graduation cum laude (with distinction). The cords are provided by the University of Idaho and are worn on this one occasion only.

The University of Idaho adopted a doctoral gown of its own in 1989. The silver gown has a panel and sleeve bars of black velvet outlined in antique gold. The beret styled soft cap is patterned after the Cambridge version instead of the traditional Oxford-style mortarboard. The cap and gown were designed by Emeritus Professor Edmund Chavez in the university's centennial year and is worn today by faculty serving as officials at the University commencements.

The mace, a heavy staff or club used in medieval times for breaking armor, acquired a ceremonial function in 13th century France as a symbol of secular authority. The University of Idaho mace, designed by Edmund M. Chavez, professor emeritus, with metal work by Idaho artist Ray Goodner, was used for the first time at the 1989 centennial commencement. It is 32 inches long, made of walnut, and encircled with bands of Idaho gold and silver in which Idaho garnets and opals are set. The head is embellished with silver and gold representations of camas plants and syringa flowers.

To enrich education through diversity, the University of Idaho does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran in employment or in admission to or the operation of its educational program and activities, as required by state and federal laws and regulation. Inquiries may be directed to the University's Human Rights Compliance Office.

“HERE WE HAVE IDAHO”

1 Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.

Chorus

And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.

2 Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.

Chorus

And here we have Idaho,
Winning her way to fame;
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.
