

Commencement Program

University of Idaho

82nd Commencement
William H. Kibbie-ASUI
Activity Center
Saturday, May 14, 1977

HERE WE HAVE IDAHO

- 1 *Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

- 2 *Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

Citations of Merit Upon Retirement

Melvin L. DeWitt, Professor Emeritus of Animal Sciences

Professor Melvin L. DeWitt began his career at the University of Idaho in July 1959, following the completion of five years of service at Minidoka High School as vocational agriculture instructor. Until his retirement in November 1976, he served as superintendent of farm operations in the College of Agriculture. Professor DeWitt assisted in many agricultural research endeavors, earning the esteem of his colleagues for his professionalism, loyalty and dedication. Skilled in the mechanical arts, he is an award-winning welder. As a hobby, he has gained proficiency in wheelwrighting, an old and almost-forgotten craft. From 1942 to 1945, he served in the U.S. Navy. He received both Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Idaho.

Clifford I. Dobler, Professor Emeritus of Business Law

Born, educated and except for Navy service privileged to work his total life in Idaho, Professor Clifford I. Dobler, has long been known as one of the most outstanding teachers at the University of Idaho. During his 33 years of teaching at the University, Professor Dobler has received numerous awards for excellence in teaching including eight Associated Students of the University of Idaho Service Citations. Outstanding among his various honors are the 1975 Award of Merit presented by Gamma Sigma Delta, the honorary Society of Agriculture, and his election in 1965 by the University of Idaho fraternities as the "Most Outstanding Teacher at the University of Idaho". Professor Dobler has taught Business Law throughout his career and has acquired the reputation of demanding a lot from his students and making sure that his students know Business Law by the time they complete the class. Professor Dobler holds three degrees from the University of Idaho, a Bachelor of Science degree in Business in 1938, Juris Doctorate in 1941 and a Master of Arts degree in Political Science in 1950. Professor Dobler's teaching career was interrupted by three years of service in the U.S. Navy in 1942-45. Active in campus activities, Professor Dobler was one of the charter members of Faculty Council and helped draft the constitution of that Council. He also conceived and prepared the first faculty salary survey and has helped in preparation of the survey every year since its inception in 1966. During his tenure at Idaho, Professor Dobler has served on numerous committees. Having attended every University of Idaho Commencement since 1946, Professor Dobler has served as Commencement student marshal and rehearsal director since 1965.

Edgar H. Grahm, Professor of Chemistry and Dean Emeritus

A man noted for working behind the scenes, Dr. Edgar H. Grahm retires this year as Dean of the Graduate School. Dr. Grahm joined the University staff in 1941 as an instructor, but his career was interrupted in 1943 by service in the military during World War II. He rejoined the Idaho faculty in 1946 and a year later he became half of one of the first University of Idaho husband-wife teaching teams when his wife joined the faculty. Between the two of them, Edgar in Chemistry and Elna in Mathematics, they taught over 1,000 freshmen each year. Elna Grahm continued her teaching duties throughout her career retiring as professor emerita of math in 1969. Edgar Grahm branched out from his original teaching assignment and in 1961 accepted the duties of Executive Secretary of the Research Council at the University. In 1965 Dr. Grahm took on added duties as assistant dean of the Graduate School which at that time had about 450 students. In 1971 Dr. Grahn stepped up to associate dean and in 1975 became dean of the Graduate School. During his twelve years of service with the Graduate School, Dr. Grahn saw graduate enrollment more than double. Dr. Grahn also served six years as director of the National Science Foundation Institute in Science and Mathematics which was held on the University campus each summer. He has also assisted on National Science Foundation panels determining grant awards. Dr. Grahn received his bachelor of science degree from the College of Puget Sound in 1941, his master of science degree from the University of Idaho in 1948 and his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois in 1955. Dr. Grahn contends that he has come full circle in his career at Idaho — the same office he had in the Life Science Building as a graduate student later became his office as associate dean of the Graduate School. Dr. Grahn has been an active member of the B.P.O.E., the American Legion and other community activities. Dr. and Mrs. Grahn plan to divide their time between their home in Moscow and their property in Hawaii now that they are both retired.

Donald A. Gustafson, Professor Emeritus of Chemistry

The advisor for chemistry, pre-medicine and medical technology students for many years, Dr. Donald A. Gustafson retires this year after 33 years of service to the University of Idaho. Dr. Gustafson received both his Bachelor of Science degree and his Ph.D. from the University of Washington in 1937 and 1944 respectively. A member of several professional and scholarly organizations, Dr. Gustafson has held offices in the American Chemical Society and in Sigma Xi research honorary. He has also served as advisor for Alpha Epsilon Delta (national pre-medicine honor society), Mu Epsilon Delta (University of Idaho pre-medicine honor society), and Phi Eta Sigma (freshman men's academic honor society.) Dr. Gustafson has also been active in Phi Beta Kappa, serving as President of the Idaho chapter in 1967-68. Dr. Gustafson has served on several University of Idaho committees including 25 years on the Commencement Committee. A SEND Endowment Scholarship has been established by Dr. Gustafson to provide scholarships for University of Idaho students majoring in chemistry, pre-medical studies or medical technology based on academic excellence. The first Donald A. Gustafson Scholarship award will be made during Parent's Weekend of 1978.

Roscoe D. Watson, Professor Emeritus of Plant Sciences

Dr. Roscoe D. Watson, plant pathologist, has investigated plant diseases in the United States and abroad. Prior to joining the University of Idaho faculty in 1945, he was engaged in research and evaluation in plant diseases in Texas. A native of Utah, he received Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from Utah State University. He was awarded the Ph.D. degree by Cornell University. In Idaho, he taught courses in plant pathology and conducted research on plant diseases, the ecology of soilborne organisms and the control of soilborne fungus pathogens. One of his major achievements has been the development of the concept that the form of nitrogen in the soil has an influence on the incidence of disease in plants. A skilled photographer, Dr. Watson has pioneered in the use of aerial photography for mapping vegetation and monitoring plant diseases and weeds.

From 1954 to 1956, he served in Iraq as an advisor to the Ministry of Agriculture and the Ministry of Development and Planning. He has been active member of the American Phytopathological Society.

Significance of Academic Costume

DOCTORS wear the round, bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or velvet of color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may, if he so chooses, wear the gold tassel on his cap.

MASTERS wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part for the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

BACHELORS wear the long pointed sleeve; the hood is small.

UNDERGRADUATES wear the round or pointed sleeve, and wear no hood.

Hoods are lined with the colors of the institutions granting the degree, or with which the wearer is connected, and are trimmed with velvet of the color distinctive of the degree — for example, arts and letters, white; fine arts, brown; philosophy, blue; science, gold-yellow; music, pink; agriculture, maize; engineering, orange; forestry, russet; pedagogy, light blue; commerce and accounting, drab.

HONOR CORDS draped over the shoulders designate the students who are graduating with honors: cum laude with silver cords and summa cum laude with gold cords. These are recognition cords and are worn on this one occasion only — they are not part of the academic costume.

Honor Cords are provided by the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.
