

Idaho

The 89th Commencement at the University of Idaho

Saturday, May 12, 1984

William H. Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center, Moscow, Idaho

HERE WE HAVE IDAHO

1 *Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

2 *Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

DAY ROOM

A day room for parents with infants needing attention is available in the south concourse.

FIRST AID STATION

A first aid station with a nurse in attendance is located at the center of the south concourse. Restrooms are located near the center of the south concourse.

CAP AND GOWN RETURNS

All graduates should return their caps and gowns to the tables set up in each of the eight different locations.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Image Studios, 222 Troy Road, Moscow, will provide the photography for the 1984 Commencement.

Citations of Merit Upon Retirement

Eldon D. Archambault, Professor Emeritus of Education

Professor Eldon Archambault is ending a career emphasizing improvement of education. He has taught at the University of Idaho since 1971, when he came here to teach school and community relations, school finance and theory in school administration. He has been advisor for about six doctoral students each year since he came to the University. Active in education affairs throughout the state, Archambault frequently served as a mediator and fact-finder to resolve impasses in negotiations between teachers and school trustees. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in education degree from the University of Northern Iowa, and master's and doctoral degrees in education administration from the University of Iowa. He has served on many university committees and was coordinator of educational administration, where he was instrumental in upgrading preparation programs for school administrators, including initiation of an internship program. Archambault has written a number of articles on subjects relating to education administration and in 1979 was awarded a certificate of recognition for research by Phi Delta Kappa, and received a distinguished faculty award from Phi Kappa Phi and the Alumni Association the same year. In 1981, he was honored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals with a service award.

William A. Billingsley, Professor Emeritus of Music

Professor Billingsley is known across the state for his original music compositions. He has served the University of Idaho since September 1954, teaching a variety of music classes. He holds Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. Billingsley was director of the School of Music from July 1977 until June 1978, when he stepped down to return to teaching. He has served on the Faculty Council, the Curriculum Committee, the Letters and Science Dean's Advisory Committee and in other university governance positions. Billingsley is active as a clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor at music festivals in the Northwest. He is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, music honorary and Phi Kappa Phi. As an active musician, he is also a member of the American Federation of Musicians, the American Society of Composers and Performers and ASUC. He has written more than 25 original works, which have been performed both on and off campus. He has also published several scores and collections of music. Among his honors are serving as trumpet clinician at the 1961 Oregon Music Educator's Festival at the University of Oregon; guest composer at the 1962 University of Oregon 20th Century Music Festival; guest composer in 1977 at Evergreen State College; guest composer in 1981 at Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa; 1960 recipient of a University of Idaho Outstanding Faculty Award; 1976 recipient of the Special Three-Star Merit Award from the National Federation of Music Clubs; listed in "Who's Who In the West" since 1978, and named to the 1982-83 edition of "Who's Who in America."

James L. Black, Professor Emeritus of Adult Education

Professor James Black has given 32 years of educational service to the state of Idaho, including positions in classroom teaching and administration in public school systems, the State

Office of Higher Education and colleges and universities. He has spent much of his working life traveling through the state, providing instructional material and organizational support to teachers working in basic education. He came to the University of Idaho in 1966 and became coordinator for continuing education programs and director of correspondence studies in 1974, in addition to his university teaching. He is the author of "Understanding Contracts and Legal Documents and Understanding Criminal Law," part of the "Lifeworks" series for McGraw Hill. He is a recipient of the Phi Delta Kappa Service Award, the Dedicated Service Award from the Idaho Adult Basic Education Advisory Council and the Meritorious Service Award from the Northwest Adult Education Association. He holds Bachelor of Arts and Master of Science in education degrees from the University of Idaho and a Doctor of Education degree from Washington State University. He has been active in planning programs for Idaho Region X adult education and served as chairman of the State Advisory Council for Adult Education from 1979 to 1982. He has also been a member of the University College of Education Teacher Education Coordinating Committee, the University of Idaho Division of Vocational Teacher Education Graduate Committee and the Lewis Clark State College Adult Basic Education Advisory Committee.

William A. Byrd, Professor Emeritus of Communication

Professor William Byrd first came to the University of Idaho in July, 1965. He has taught a variety of communication courses and was program director for KUID-TV from 1970 to 1976. He worked as a commercial broadcaster for several years before coming to Idaho. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in theatre arts from Whitman College and a Master of Science degree in radio and television from Syracuse University. Among his activities at the University are service on the Commencement Committee, the Curriculum Committee for the School of Communication, the Fine Arts Committee, the Letters and Science Committee on Improvement of Teaching, the Letters and Science Curriculum Sub-Committee on Professional Studies, the Teacher Education Coordinating Committee, the University Curriculum Committee, and as a member of the first committee to do planning for the Performing Arts Center. He is a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, Delta Sigma Phi, and the Western Education Society for Telecommunication. He has been active as a performer and professional actor much of his adult life and has produced and directed a number of television instructional series.

Gene Dallimore, Extension Professor Emeritus

Gene Dallimore's career with the University of Idaho has spanned nearly three decades and three different work assignments. He is retiring as Extension Professor of Plant Science and Jefferson County Agent. He began working for the University of Idaho in July of 1955 at the Aberdeen Research and Extension Center, studying nematode and fungus diseases of potatoes. He worked there until 1973, when he moved to Idaho Falls to become area extension potato specialist, a position he held until 1981. That year, he became agriculture agent for Jefferson County. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in botany from Utah State Agriculture College, Logan, Utah, and a Master of Science degree in plant pathology from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. He has written many technical articles and publications on the subject of nematode infestation and damage of potatoes. He is a member of the American Phytopathological Society, the Society of Nematologists, the Potato Association of America and the American Association of University Professors. In 1979 he was honored with the Outstanding Work Award from Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi honorary. Before coming to the University, he worked as a plant pathologist for the Idaho Plant Pest Control and Research Commission. Prior to that, he served as a pharmacist's mate with the U.S. Navy.

Merland W. Grieb, Professor Emeritus of Chemistry

Professor Merland Grieb first taught at the University of Idaho in 1946, when he was a teaching assistant in the Department of Chemistry. Leaving Idaho in 1949, he was a teaching assistant and research assistant at the University of Illinois from 1949 until 1953. He then served as assistant professor at Wayne University until 1956, when he returned to the University of Idaho, where he has taught since. Grieb holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in chemistry from Idaho, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Illinois. In 1966-67, he taught at Idaho an in-service institute for chemistry study and National Science Foundation summer institutes for high school teachers in 1963, 1964, 1966-69, 1971 and 1973. He is a member of the American Chemical Society, Sigma Xi, Phi Lambda Upsilon, Alpha Chi Sigma, the American Association of University Professors and the Idaho Academy of Science. He has several scholarly publications in research journals to his credit.

Paul F. Kaus, Professor of Education and Director of Summer Sessions Emeritus

After 35 years as an elementary teacher, principal and university administrator, Paul Kaus is retiring. He first came to the University of Idaho as an instructor in the College of Education in 1955. In 1960, he was appointed field services administrator of the Division of Summer School and Continuing Education. In 1966, he was named director of Summer Sessions at Idaho and served as on-campus coordinator for the statewide Division of Continuing Education, until it was discontinued in 1974. In 1961, he helped organize the Adult Education Center at Coeur d'Alene and was instrumental in developing the undergraduate program at Idaho Falls. Kaus is a native of Idaho and was born and raised at Cottonwood. He holds a Bachelor's degree in education from North Idaho College of Education, Lewiston, and Master's and Doctoral degrees in education from Washington State University. He has been active in professional associations, serving as president of the Idaho Education Association from 1956 to 1957 and as National Education Association director for Idaho in 1957-58. He was regional vice president of the North American Association of Summer Session Administrators in 1976-77. He has served on the Administrative Council, the Faculty Council, the Faculty Affairs Committee, the Classified Position Review Board and the Continuing Education Advisory Committee.

Earl J. Larrison, Professor of Zoology and Editor of the University Press of Idaho Emeritus

Zoologist Earl Larrison is the guiding force behind the University of Idaho's Natural History Museum, contributing many gifts and exhibits and helping obtain donations of money and specimens to develop the facility. He came to the University of Idaho in the winter of 1949 and has taught many courses since then, including animal behavior, animal geography, behavior of animals in winter, bird identification, natural history museum techniques, natural history of the Pacific Northwest and natural history photography. Larrison holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees from the University of Washington. He has been editor of the University Press of Idaho since 1975 and has been a member of the Bookstore Advisory Committee, the Letters and Science Curriculum Committee, the University Curriculum Committee and the University Library Committee. He is a member of many professional and scholarly organizations, such as the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Idaho Academy of Science, the Pacific Northwest Bird and Mammal Society, the Palouse Audubon Society, and several others. He is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Sigma, Pi Mu Chi and Sigma Xi scholarly and research honoraries. He is a prolific author, having written or co-authored nearly 20 books and booklets. He has been honored with the 1971 Outstanding Nature Writer in the Pacific Northwest Award, the 1979 Outstanding Contributor to Wildlife award, the 1981 University of Idaho Library Outstanding Faculty Award, the 1982 Outstanding University Press Editor Award by the Rocky Mountain Book Publishers Association, the 1982 Biologist of the Year in Idaho Award and in 1983, was named as one of the top 20 donors to the University. He was an invited participant to the International Sir Walter Scott Symposium at the University of Florida in 1979.

Albert R. Menard Jr., Professor of Law and Dean Emeritus

Professor Albert Menard came to the University of Idaho as dean of the College of Law in 1967 to find the program crowded and overflowing its quarters in the south wing of the Administration Building. Under his guidance, the college was moved into a modern new facility designed especially for law instruction, the student body tripled and the faculty increased from four to 13. He stepped down from his post as dean in 1978 to return to teaching. Menard is a native of Macon, Ga. He holds an A.B. degree from the University of Georgia and a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia University. He has written and published more than 15 scholarly articles. He has been admitted to practice in New York, Colorado, and before the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the American Bar Association, the American Association of Law Schools, the Law School Admission Test Council, the Order of the Coif and Phi Delta Phi. He has served a variety of agencies as legal consultant. He plans to write a history of the University of Idaho College of Law.

Cara Z. Newman, Extension Professor Emerita

Cara Newman, Madison and Teton County extension home economist, is retiring 36 years after she first joined the University of Idaho Cooperative Extension Service. Her first post was as Jefferson County home economist, beginning in 1948. She worked in Fremont County and Madison County before she accepted a teaching position at Ricks College, where she worked from 1970 to 1976. She returned to the Cooperative Extension Service in 1977 in the position from which she is retiring. She has been instrumental in developing a strong 4-H program for the counties she has worked in and has been honored with an Outstanding Home Economist Award from the Ricks College Family Living Department. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in vocational home economics from Utah State University. She is a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, the Idaho and National Education Associations, the Idaho and American Home Economics Associations, the Idaho Vocational Home Economics Association, the American Vocational Association and the National Association of Educational Home Economists.

Richard E. Ohms, Extension Professor Emeritus

Extension specialist Richard Ohms has served the University of Idaho Cooperative Extension Service since 1957, first as extension potato specialist for the state and then as extension crop management specialist. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in agronomy and a Master of Science degree in plant pathology from the University of Idaho and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in plant pathology from the University of Illinois. He is a member of the Potato Association of America and has served that organization as a member of a variety of committees. He has also been active in the European Potato Association, Alpha Zeta, Sigma Xi, RESA, NIFSA, Epsilon Sigma Phi, Potato Selection Committee, Foundation Seed Committee, Potato Advisory Committee to Idaho Crop Improvement, Potato Research and Education Committee of the Idaho Potato Commission and the Potato Industry Conference Committee. He has written and published many scholarly articles and technical bulletins. Among his honors are the 1976 District and State Valuable Service Award from the Potato Growers of Idaho; a Union Pacific Railroad Research Fellowship for 1950-52; recognition from American Men of Science; listing in "Who's Who in the West"; appointment as seed potato consultant for the Kingdom of Jordan in 1971; appointment as seed potato consultant for CIP in the Mid-East for 1974; chair of the Joint Conference of Disease and Certification Sections of the Potato Association of America in 1976; appointment as crop management advisor to Iran-Idaho Land Development in 1976; appointment as lecturer on seed potato production and storage in Cairo, Egypt in 1974; appointment as lecturer on potato diseases in Tel Amara, Lebanon in 1974, and member of the Major Egyptian Cereal Project Advisory Committee in 1980.

Siegfried B. Rolland, Professor of Social Sciences and History and Chairman of the Department of History Emeritus

After 32 years of teaching history and other courses at the University of Idaho, Professor Siegfried Rolland is retiring. He has served as summer acting head of both the Departments of Social Sciences and History during his years at the University and as head of the History Department beginning in the spring of 1982. He has been involved almost continuously in research projects with students and has served as graduate advisor for many Master of Arts, Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy theses and dissertations. His service to the university and the state is long and varied and includes serving on the Administrative Council, the Athletic Board of Control, the Calendar Committee, Committee on Committees, Faculty Affairs Committee, Faculty Council, Juntura Committee and a variety of others. He has been frequently consulted by different agencies interested in historical and social science related subjects. He is a member of a large number of professional and scholarly organizations, including the American Association of University Professors, the American Historical Association, the American Political Science Association, the Idaho History Association, the Idaho Historical Society, the Organization of American Historians and the Pacific Northwest History Conference. He holds Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees from Wayne University, Detroit, Mich., and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin. He is the author of many book reviews and several scholarly articles. Rolland has been in frequent demand as a public speaker by a variety of organizations. Among his honors are a grant from the American Philosophical Society toward completion of his study of Cadwallader Colden, and ASUI Service Citations for 1973, 1974 and 1975.

Donald R. Scott, Professor Emeritus of Entomology

Donald R. Scott began his career with the University of Idaho in 1956, when he joined the staff of the Parma Research and Extension Center. He holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees from the University of Nebraska and has studied at the University of Wisconsin. He has studied the effects of corn earworms and other pests of seed and forage crops in the Parma area extensively and has published numerous scholarly articles and technical bulletins on related subjects. Scott has been honored with membership in Gamma Sigma Delta and Sigma Xi. He has served on both University and Departmental Curriculum Committees, as chairman of his Department Steering Committee and as chairman of the Western Corn Rootworm Committee. He has been active in the Entomological Society of America, the International Biennial Host Plant Resistance Workshop, the XV International Congress of Entomology, the Pacific Northwest Forage Insect Conference, the Pacific Northwest Vegetable Insect Conference and the Western Orchard Pest and Disease Conference. He has served as major advisor for Master's and Doctoral theses and dissertations.

LaMont Smith, Extension Professor Emeritus

LaMont Smith served the University of Idaho Cooperative Extension Service in Minidoka County for 23 years before retiring. He also served for three years in Power County and was district dairy specialist in Pocatello for nearly three years. He holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in dairy science from the University of Idaho. He was honored in 1980 with the Distinguished Service Award of the National Association of Agricultural Agents and is a member of the National Dairy Shrine Club.

Significance of Academic Costume

DOCTORS wear the round, bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or velvet of color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may, if he or she chooses, wear the gold tassel on the cap.

MASTERS wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part for the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

BACHELORS wear the long pointed sleeve; the hood is small.

UNDERGRADUATES wear the round or pointed sleeve, and wear no hood.

Hoods are lined with the colors of the institutions granting the degree, or with which the wearer is connected, and are trimmed with velvet of the color distinctive of the degree — for example, arts and letters, white; fine arts, brown; philosophy, blue; science, gold-yellow; music, pink; agriculture, maize; engineering, orange; forestry, russet; pedagogy, light blue; commerce and accounting, drab.

HONOR CORDS draped over the shoulders designate the students who are graduating with honors; cum laude with silver cords and summa cum laude with gold cords. These are recognition cords and are worn on this one occasion only — they are not part of the academic costume.

Honor Cords are provided by the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.
