

The 90th Commencement at the University of Idaho

Friday, May 10, 1985

William H. Kibbie-ASUI Activity Center, Moscow, Idaho

HERE WE HAVE IDAHO

1 *Alma Mater, the hope of a pioneer race;
You're fashioned of dreams and of toil,
Your walls and your towers by stout-hearted men
Were raised from the rock and the soil.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

2 *Now ours is the heritage, rich and so full,
The gain of their toil and their tears;
And ours is the fruit, and the harvest is ours,
Oh, Idaho, gift of the years.*

Chorus:

*And here we have Idaho
Winning her way to fame
Silver and Gold in the sunlight blaze,
And romance lies in her name;
Singing, we're singing of you, ah, proudly too;
All our lives through we'll go singing,
Singing of you, Alma Mater, our Idaho.*

DAY ROOM

A day room for parents with infants needing attention is available in the south concourse.

FIRST AID STATION

A first aid station with a nurse in attendance is located at the center of the south concourse. Restrooms are located near the center of the south concourse.

CAP AND GOWN RETURNS

All graduates should return their caps and gowns to the tables set up in each of the eight different locations.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Established in 1925. Arthur R. Gittins, Ph.D., Dean

Doctor of Philosophy

Richard Douglas Abbott, B.S.Ch.E., M.S., Grass Range, Montana
Chemical Engineering. Dissertation: "Modeling and Simulation of Drying Process in the Forest Products Industry." Major Professor: Louis L. Edwards

Jeanne Carolyn Walker Anderegg, B.A., M.S., Moscow
Soil Science. Dissertation: "Sodium Acetate-Extractable Phosphorus and pH Changes during Decomposition of Organic Amendments in Volcanic Ash-Influenced Mission Soil." Major Professor: Denny V. Naylor

Peter J. Bailey, B.S., M.A., Mason City, Iowa
Education. Dissertation: "Attributions, Affects, and Expectancies of Student Teachers." Major Professor: Raymond B. Miller

David Clarence Bosserman, B.G.S., M.S., Moscow
Education. Dissertation: "Idaho Public High School Size as an Indicator of Success in Graduation from the University of Idaho 1980-1984." Major Professor: Everett V. Samuelson

Catherine Andrea Brown, B.S., M.S., M.A., Pullman, Washington
Education. Dissertation: "A Comparison of Professional Concerns of Beginning and Experienced Teachers." Major Professor: Marvin A. Nottingham

Froylan Castaneda, B.S.F., M.S.F., La Ceiba, Honduras
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Evaluation of Double Entry Cable Logging for Forest Residue Recovery in Northern Idaho." Major Professor: Leonard R. Johnson

Donald Edward Coberly, B.S.Ed., B.A., Boise
Education. Dissertation: "Predicting Spelling Performance: Relevant Factors." Major Professor: George Canney

El Hassan El Mazzoudi, B.S., Rabat, Morocco
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Growth and Yield of Eucalyptus camaldulensis Using Weibull Probability Distribution." Major Professor: David L. Adams

John Lawrence Farbo, B.S., M.B.A., M.P.A., Moscow
Education. Dissertation: "A Comparison of the Perceived Effectiveness of the Internal Audit Function between Selected Private and Public Supported Colleges and Universities in the Western United States." Major Professor: Everett V. Samuelson

*Steven Joseph Fernandez, B.S., M.S., Idaho Falls
Chemistry. Dissertation: "Measurement of Low Energy Beta Emitters in Nuclear Facility Off-gas." Major Professor: Sherry O. Farwell

Verne Allan Geidl, B.S.C.E., M.B.A., Troy
Civil Engineering. Dissertation: "Structural Reliability Assessment of AASHTO Limit States Design for Prestressed Concrete Bulb-tee Bridge Girders." Major Professor: Ronald L. Sack

Dennis Gerhard Joyce, B.S., M.S., Moscow
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Juvenile Shoot Growth and Yield Potential in Western Larch." Major Professor: Lauren Fins

Carla Turner Kagel, B.S., Pamplico, South Carolina
Chemistry. Dissertation: "Application of Modern Techniques to the Determination of Gold in Geological Materials." Major Professor: Sherry O. Farwell

Grazyna Grace Goc Karp, B.Ed., M.S., Doncaster, S. Yorkshire, England
Education. Dissertation: "Theoretical and Experimental Planning Models in Secondary School Physical Education." Major Professor: Dorothy B. Zakrajsek

*Scott Alan Kinkead, B.S., Cocoa Beach, Florida
Chemistry. Dissertation: "Synthesis and Reactions of Some Novel Nitrogen Fluorine and Sulfur Fluorine Compounds." Major Professor: Jean-ne M. Shreeve

Steven Brent Laursen, B.S., M.S., Moscow
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Predicting Shrub Community Composition and Structure Following Management Disturbance in Forest Ecosystems of the Intermountain West." Major Professor: James A. Moore

Thomas S. Longley, B.S., M.S., Casper, Wyoming
Civil Engineering. Dissertation: "Evaporation and Wind Drift from Reduced Pressure Sprinklers." Major Professor: Charles E. Brockway

Ernesto Pontilla Militante, B.S., M.S., Sta. Fe, Leyte, Philippines
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Studies on Phellinus weirii (Murr.) Gilbertson and Phellinus ferrugineoluscus (Karst.) Bourd." Major Professor: Arthur D. Partridge

Penelope Morgan, B.S. M.S., Wilson, Wyoming
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "Modeling Shrub Succession Following Clearcutting and Burning." Major Professor: Leon F. Neuenschwander

Linda Joyce Morris, B.S., M.Bus.Ed., M.B.A., Viola
Education. Dissertation: "Reasons for Participation in Continuing Professional Education: A Multivariate Analysis of Group Differences." Major Professor: Edward L. Kelly

Hassan A. Nammah, B.S., B.S., M.S., M.S., Bagdad, Iraq
Agricultural Engineering. Dissertation: "Optimizing Drain Spacing Formulae for Steady State and Transient Conditions." Major Professor: George L. Bloomsburg

Thomas Michael Pettey, B.S., M.S., Monona, Wisconsin
Bacteriology. Dissertation: "Enhancement of Acid-Precipitable, Polymeric Lignin Production (APPL) in Streptomyces by Protoplast Fusion." Major Professor: Donald L. Crawford

*Ronald Graham Powell, B.A., M.A., Regina, Saskatchewan
History. Dissertation: "British Policy with Respect to Loyalist and American Immigration into Western Quebec and Upper Canada 1783 to 1796 and its Relationship to British Indian Affairs and Canadian Indian Land Surrenders 1783 to 1796." Major Professor: Siegfried B. Rolland

Ralph Neil Reese, B.S., M.S., Salt Lake City, Utah
Botany. Dissertation: "Effects of Cadmium on Growth and Respiration in Suspension-Cultured Tobacco Cells." Major Professor: Lorin W. Roberts

Michael David Samuel, B.A., M.S., Albany, California
Forestry, Wildlife, and Range Sciences. Dissertation: "An Evaluation of Elk Sightability in North Central Idaho with Application to Aerial Census and Herd Composition Counts." Major Professor: Edward O. Garton

Peggy Sue Seachris, B.S.Ed., M.Ed., Touchet, Washington
Education. Dissertation: "Sex-Role Attitudes and Sex-Role Identity of Counselors-in-Preparation, England and the United States." Major Professor: Thomas E. Hipple

*Aina Carmen Sehman, B.A., M.A., Saint Paul, Minnesota
Education. Dissertation: "Specially Educated and Licensed Teachers' Perceptions of the Controllability and Stability of Cause for Juvenile Delinquents as Compared to the Same Perceptions for the Mentally Retarded." Major Professor: Judith A. Doerann-George

Sharon Ann Crowley Smith, B.A. M.Ed., Hayden Lake
Education. Dissertation: "The Effects of Clinical Supervision on Teachers Autonomy and Perceptions of Productive Relationships." Major Professor: Judith A. Doerann-George

John Basil Sowell, B.S., Moscow
Botany. Dissertation: "Influence of Soil Temperature on Root Respiration and Water Uptake of Subalpine Conifers from Low and High Elevations." Major Professor: George G. Spomer

Stalin Atahualpa Suarez, B.S., M.S., Quito, Ecuador
Mechanical Engineering. Dissertation: "Optimization of Internal Damping in Fiber Reinforced Composite Materials." Major Professor: Ronald F. Gibson

Citations on Retirement

Guy R. Anderson, Professor of Bacteriology and Director of the WAMI Medical Education Program Emeritus

Professor Anderson's association with the University of Idaho spans more than 40 years, beginning in 1942 when he received his B.S., degree in agriculture. Following service with the U.S. Army during World War II, he returned to UI in 1946, and earned his master's degree in agriculture in 1947. His Ph.D. in bacteriology is from Washington State University. He was a member of the UI faculty from 1946 until his retirement in August 1984, at which time he was director of the Medical Education Program, WAMI. Earlier, he was acting head of the Department of Bacteriology in 1969-70 and chairman of Pre-Medical Studies from 1971 to 1972, when he became WAMI director. Professor Anderson is a member of the American Society for Microbiology, the Idaho Academy of Science, and the American Association of University Professors. He was active in numerous community organizations, including the American Legion, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Lions International, the Conklin Park Beaver Society, and the Campfire Girls Council. In addition, Professor Anderson served on the Advisory Board for Health Education of the State Board of Education, the Vandal Booster Committee, the Food Science Curriculum Committee, and the state of Idaho's Biological Warfare Committee. His numerous publications include "The Influence of Lime on the Growth of Alfalfa in Northern Idaho," "The Effect of Organic Residue on Snowmold of Winter Wheat," "Irrigation and Soil Microorganisms," and "What Price Medical School?"

Willard Barnes, Professor Emeritus of History

Professor Barnes began his education career in history as a high-school teacher here in Moscow. He moved on to teach history to students in Baker, Oregon, and Pullman, Washington, before joining the UI faculty in 1965. But Professor Barnes's association with the University of Idaho began before that. He received his Bachelor of Science in Education degree in 1949 and his Master of Science in Education degree in 1950 from UI, and completed his Ph.D. at Washington State University. Professor Barnes continually brings the community of Moscow and UI closer together through his work with and guest lectures to civic groups. He is a member of the American Historical Association, the Northwest Historical Association, and the Idaho Historical Association. He holds honorary memberships with Curtin, a national drama honorary, Kappa Delta Phi, a national education honorary, and Phi Alpha Omega, a national history honorary.

William R. Biggam, Professor and Chairman of Industrial Education Emeritus

Professor William Biggam is credited with teaching more than one-third of Idaho's industrial arts instructors while they studied for their degrees at the University of Idaho. He first came to the university in 1959 and served in the roles of professor and chairman of the Department of Industrial education for 25 years. He retired at the end of the 1984 summer session. Professor Biggam holds a bachelor's degree in industrial education from the University of Minnesota-Duluth, a Master of Arts in industrial education from the University of Minnesota-Minneapolis, and a Doctor of Education in industrial education from Bradley University. He has published many articles in professional journals and has been active in curriculum planning. He assisted with the preparation and editing of 13 curriculum guides published and distributed by the Idaho State Board for Vocational Education. He is a member of the American Council for Industrial Arts Educators, American Industrial Arts Association, American Vocational Association, Idaho Industrial Education Association, Idaho Vocational Education Association, Lewis and Clark Industrial Education Association, National Council for Industrial Arts Educators, Epsilon Pi Tau (national honorary fraternity in industrial vocational education), and Kappa Delta Pi.

Elwood G. Bizeau, Professor Emeritus of Wildlife Resources

Elwood Bizeau, Idaho's "Mr. Whooping Crane," is retiring after nearly 28 years on the UI College of Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences faculty. He is responsible for the on-going whooping crane foster-parent program which has added over 40 birds to the wild whooping crane population. The endangered species is still limited to about 100 wild birds and around 40 in captivity. In the program, Professor Bizeau and others working on the project have placed eggs produced by captive whoopers in the nests of sandhill cranes for them to hatch and rear. The project has not seen any pair-bonding among the foster-parented offspring, although they do prefer to associate with their own kind as they reach maturity. Other birds he has studied are pheasants, ducks, Canadian geese, and chukar partridges, to name a few. Most of his work has centered on the Grays Lake area in southeastern Idaho. Before coming to UI, he worked for the Wyoming Game and Fish Department from 1957 to 1959 and the Idaho Fish and Game Department from 1959 to 1967. He has been an active member of the Idaho Chapter of the Wildlife Society, the Idaho Environmental Council, the Idaho Wildlife Federation, the Wilderness Society, the Society of American Foresters, Xi Sigma Pi honor society, Sigma Xi research honorary, and Theta Delta Phi honorary. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Oregon State University and a Master of Science degree from UI.

Bert C. Cross, Professor of Journalism and Department Chairman Emeritus

Professor Bert C. Cross has devoted much of his life to teaching journalism to college students. He was an instructor in journalism in 1947 at Central Washington College and has since taught at Kansas State University, Michigan State University, and Stanford University. He came to the University of Idaho in 1962 as chairman of the Department of Journalism, a position he held for 12 years. During that time he watched enrollment of journalism students quadruple. When he stepped down as chairman in 1974, he said the increase was probably due to the national trend of the era for young people to become more involved in politics and government. Professor Cross has served as editor of the Idaho Communication Review several times since 1975. A grant of $30,000 from the National Endowment for the Humanities in 1976 enabled him to complete a project on the history of the Lewiston Morning Tribune.

Its purpose was to investigate the contributions and influence a small daily newspaper can have on the political, economic, and social development of the area. Professor Cross holds a Bachelor of Arts in journalism from the University of Washington and a Master of Science in journalism from the University of Oregon, and did advanced graduate work in political science with a minor in communication-journalism at Stanford. His professional affiliations include the Association for Education in Journalism, Kappa Tau Alpha (national journalism honorary), and Sigma Delta Chi, the society of professional journalists.

Jerome J. Dahmen, Professor Emeritus of Animal Science

Professor Jerome Dahmen brings a 38-year career as an animal scientist to a close with his retirement this year. He joined the University of Idaho in 1947, shortly after receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in animal husbandry here. From 1947 until 1955 he served as assistant county extension agent and county extension agent in Nez Perce and Idaho Counties. In 1952 he completed a Master of Science in animal breeding from Oregon State University. He earned a doctorate in genetics in 1966 at Oregon State University. Since 1955 Professor Dahmen has worked as an animal scientist for UI, and has published more than 80 works—primarily dealing with research on sheep and cattle. He was superintendent of the Caldwell Branch Experiment station from 1958 until 1974. Since then he has split his time between research and teaching. Professor Dahmen's professional affiliations include the American Society of Animal Science, American Registry of Certified Animal Scientists, and Idaho County Agents Association, in which he served as vice president in 1954 and president in 1955.

Max E. Fletcher, Professor of Economics and Department Head Emeritus

A native of Preston, Professor Max Fletcher has been on the UI faculty since 1958. He served as chairman of the Department of economics from 1968 to 1972 and as head of the department from 1973 to 1979. He graduated magna cum laude with a B.A. in economics from the University of Washington and earned his master's in that discipline at UI. His doctorate, also in economics, is from the University of Wisconsin. Besides his teaching experience at UI, Professor Fletcher has also taught at Marquette University, Humboldt State College, and the University of Texas. He is a member of the American Economists Association, the Association for Evolutionary Economics, and the Economic History Association. Among his many publications are "The Suez Canal and World Shipping, 1869-1914," "Lawyers, Economists and Laissez-Faire," "The Jekyll and Hyde Years: Politics and Economic Policy Since 1964," and "Law and the Evolution of Economic Policy." His most current research involved agricultural discontent in the United States during the late 19th century. Some of the honors and awards he has received include a Fulbright scholarship to the London School of Economics, an Advanced Knapp Fellowship, a Ford Foundation Dissertation Fellowship to the University of Wisconsin, and a listing in Who's Who in America.

Kenneth R. Frederiksen, Professor Emeritus of Animal Science

A man who has been a leader in research benefitting the Idaho sheep industry has retired from the University of Idaho after a 33-year career. Professor Kenneth Frederiksen retired last summer as assistant to the director of the UI Agricultural Experiment Station. He spent 32 of his 33 years with UI working at the U.S. Sheep Experiment Station at Dubois, where he started as an assistant animal husbandman in 1951. He left Dubois in 1983 as research professor of animal science. In addition to administrative duties for UI, he was an active researcher. Among the project with which he worked were development of an artificial rearing system for orphan lambs, development of a nutritionally sound milk replacement formula for lambs, improvement of the rate and efficiency of gain in lambs, early weaning, post-weaning protein and energy requirements of young lambs, and nutrition of baby lambs. He also cooperated in studies on coccidiosis control, range nutrition, and wintering of sheep on pelleted alfalfa. He is a native of Kilgore, 27 miles northeast of Dubois, and holds degrees from UI and Colorado State University. He is a member of Sigma Xi research honorary society and Alpha Zeta agriculture honorary society. He also belongs to the American Society of Animal Science and is the author of numerous scholarly articles and technical bulletins. He has also been active in several community organizations in the Dubois area.

Glenn C. Lewis, Professor Emeritus of Soil Science

After nearly 38 years with the University of Idaho, Glenn C. Lewis, the man who knows the history of southern Idaho loess soils, is retiring. He came to UI in 1947 as an instructor and assistant agricultural chemist. Professor Lewis has taught classes in soil chemistry, soil mineralogy, general soils, and agricultural biochemistry. His research record includes investigations of soil phosphorus, water quality, pesticides in soils, soil mineralogy, and loess-derived soils. He served as assistant head of the Department of Plant and Soil Sciences from June 1976 to June 1982, and is professor and soil scientist. He has taught many courses and been active in research during his years at UI. He has written many technical articles, most recently discussing his work on the history of the southern Idaho loess soil deposits. He has been involved in bringing over $320,000 in outside research funds to UI. He is a member of the Soil Science Society of America, the International Society of Soil Science, Sigma Xi research honorary, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Western Society of Soil Science, the American Society of Agronomy, and Gamma Sigma Delta. He has held offices in most of those and in 1978-79 was president of the Pacific Division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has been named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Victor E. Montgomery, Professor of Psychology and Department Chairman Emeritus

Professor Montgomery came to UI in 1963 and served as chairman of the Department of Psychology from 1965 to 1975. During his years here, he served on many university committees including the Campus Planning Committee, the Educational Improvement Committee, Faculty Affairs Committee, and the University Planning and Environment Committee. Born in West Virginia, Professor Montgomery received his A.B. in psychology from Duke University, an M.S. in psychology from Washington State University, and his Ph.D. in psychology from Northwestern University. He is a licensed psychologist in the state of Idaho and is a member of several professional organizations, including AAAS, Chord, the American Psychological Association, Idaho Academy of Sciences, and the Idaho Psychological Association. He was listed in Who's Who in America in 1972.

Stanley A. Shepard, Head Emeritus, Department of Special Collections and Archives in the University Library, with rank of Professor

With a 35-year career in library work, 26 of them at the University of Idaho, Stanley Shepard has retired. He first worked at UI from 1951 to 1954 as documents librarian, and returned to the UI Library system in 1961 as head of the Technical Services Division. He served in that capacity until 1981, when he was named head of the Department of Special Collections and Archives, the position he held when he retired at the end of 1984. In addition to the UI Library, he has worked for library systems at Rutgers University, the University of Kansas, and Colgate University. At UI he has also served as assistant and associate director of libraries. He is a member of the American Library Association, the American Printing Historical Society, the Idaho Historical Society, the Idaho Library Association, the Pacific Northwest Library Association, and the Latah County Historical Society. He has been active in a number of local civic organizations and as a Boy Scouts of America volunteer. He has served as editor of the Idaho Librarian and of the Latah Legacy, the publication of the Latah County Historical Society. He was named Librarian of the Year for 1979 by the Idaho Library Association.

William H. Snyder, Professor of Landscape Architecture and Department Chairman Emeritus

Professor Snyder first joined the UI faculty in 1956 as assistant professor and horticulturist and later served as chairman of the Department of Landscape Architecture from 1977 to 1983. Numerous sites both on campus and around Moscow reflect his landscaping touch, including the east approach to the Agricultural Sciences Building, the ASUI golf course club house and the slope opposite the Physical Education Building. Professor Snyder served on the mayor's Ad Hoc Civic Development Committee on the design of Friendship Square Mall in 1970-71, including construction, bench design, and tree management. He drew the landscape plans for Saint Augustine's Catholic Center, Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Gritman Memorial Hospital, and the new Idaho Supreme Court Building. He has served on numerous UI committees, including the Campus Beautification Committee, the Dean's Advisory Committee for the College of Letters and Science, and the Arboretum Committee. Professor Snyder earned his bachelor's degree at South Dakota State University and a master's degree in landscape horticulture from the University of Illinois. He also possesses a Master of Landscape Architecture degree from the University of California-Berkeley and a Master of Fine Arts degree in sculpture from UI. He won the Research Award from the America the Beautiful Fund in 1967. Among his many professional associations, Professor Snyder is or has been a member of the Idaho Landscape Architectural Registration Board, the American Institute of Architects, Phi Kappa Phi honor society, and Pi Alpha Xi, honorary landscape horticultural society.

Ronald W. Stark, Professor of Forest Entomology and Dean of the Graduate School Emeritus

Professor Ronald Stark is bringing a 27-year career in forest entomology to a close this year. He came to UI in 1970 as UI coordinator of research and graduate dean and taught courses in undergraduate forest entomology, advanced forest entomology, and integrated pest management. Professor Stark served as coordinator of the UI AID Strengthening Grant Program in 1980. From 1981 to 1983, he was program manager of the Canada-United States Spruce Budworm Program. He is a native of Calgary, Alberta, and he received his B.S. in forestry and his M.A. in zoology from the University of Toronto and his Ph.D in forest entomology from the University of British Columbia. He is a member of the American Institute of Biological Sciences, British Columbia Entomological Society, the Ecological Society of America, the Entomological Societies of America and Canada, the Society of American Foresters, and Sigma Xi.

Significance of Academic Costume

DOCTORS wear the round, bell sleeve, the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or velvet of color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may, if he or she chooses, wear the gold tassel on the cap.

MASTERS wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part for the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

BACHELORS wear the long pointed sleeve; the hood is small.

UNDERGRADUATES wear the round or pointed sleeve, and wear no hood.

Hoods are lined with the colors of the institutions granting the degree, or with which the wearer is connected, and are trimmed with velvet of the color distinctive of the degree — for example, arts and letters, white; fine arts, brown; philosophy, blue; science, gold-yellow; music, pink; agriculture, maize; engineering, orange; forestry, russet; pedagogy, light blue; commerce and accounting, drab.

HONOR CORDS draped over the shoulders designate the students who are graduating with honors; cum laude with silver cords and summa cum laude with gold cords. These are recognition cords and are worn on this one occasion only — they are not part of the academic costume.

Honor Cords are provided by the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.
