Dear Mr. Crabtree;

I hope you remember me. Kent Wilkenson and I escorted you and your wife to a large quarry site south of Reno when you and your wife were here a few months ago. I had mentioned to you that I might be going to Spain this summer. The grant money came through. I will go to Spain with Dr. William Douglass the 17th of June. I will remain there until sometime late in September. I will work on two excavations under the direction of Professor Barandiaran in the Basque country. I mentioned to you that I would like to see François Borde. You mentioned that you knew him well and that I might like to see Jacques Tixier in Paris also. I do hope to see both of these people if possible.

I would like very much if you could write me letters to both individuals for introduction. If possible, could you write them both directly and, also, write a letter of introduction to be sent to me. You could send the letter to the department here and they could forward it as soon as I have an address in Spain. Joan Davlin, teaching here this summer, mentioned that such formal introduction procedures would be to my advantage, and that if I knew you and if you would be so kind as to write letters for me I would be more likely to be able to see these people.

Any assistance you can provide me will be very much appreciated. If you have anything I can do for you while I am in Spain, please don't hesitate to ask.

Very sincerely,

Dave Turner
