Dear Don:

This will confirm the arrival of the 8 by 10 prints of the Folsom points. The photos are precisely what I wished and I thank you and the Museum staff for your cooperation in this matter.

The book -- tentatively titled Predicting the Past -- is now completed and currently being xeroxed for submission to Holt, Rinehart and Winston. I will send you a copy of Chapter 6, in which I have discussed your work. I should very much appreciate your reading the relevant section over; if there are any errors in either fact or intent, I will be only too happy to correct these before the book is actually set in type.

Thank you again for your help; it has indeed been a pleasure dealing with you. Best wishes to you and yours for the Holidays.

Sincerely,

Dave
