Dear Evelyn,
Dear Don:

I had been and I'm as yet very busy, working 16 hours in a day with a big team (19 students and others) in Ksar Abil excavations. That's the reason I didn't write you. I apologize for this long delay but I hope you received Don's and Juliette's letters. Also, I'm sure François gave you some news from the Tisiers'. I have Dixie Bonmischen in my staff. She gave me some news and I strongly hope your health is better, Evelyn. Your letter touched me more than I can say. Be sure that I'll do my best for Don, but I won't think of it. I'm just looking for our meeting next year in Idaho for our Cro-Magnon Project. I'll leave every work, everything to be with you again. I keep so a great "souvenir".
