Dear Jacques,

Thank you for the kind word. I really wanted to know where you had been and what you have been doing. This will be a letter almost as short as yours, but I am most interested in where you have been and what you have been finding. So many of your friends ask about you and I have no answers for them.

I do hope everything is well with you. This is just a note for now, but experiments are still progressing. We will have field schools this Fall and I do hope everything goes well.

Thank you very much for your time to write your letter because I know you are very busy.

Your friend,

Don Crabtree
