Dear Evelyn, dear Don,

I'm so sorry, answering you so late, but I had a lot of work this last month. First, I want to thank you for the wonderful presents you sent us. My mother and I really enjoyed the broochs, I especially appreciate the colours. On an other hand, Dad told me he has been very happy of the two tools that Don made, in those splendid and so rare obsidians.

I send you, with this letter, three photographs, (and, if they are not perfect, they are better than those I sent you first) where I wear one of the broochs, and the so nice and pure opale, that a jeweller" got in ring (I don't know the exact expression in english to translate "faire monter une pierre en bague"). Unfortunately, it is almost impossible to see it on the photographs. Don't be surprise ff on one of them I wear short hair, that's a wig!...

I hope Evelyn is going better, and that the traitement does'nt make her too tired. I'll write you soon, to tellyou if my university job is going well, for I have some ethnology exams at the end of this month.

much much love, and thank you again,

Dominique
