Plaintiff, for his cause of action, alleges:

I.

At all times material herein plaintiff was a resident of the State of Idaho and defendant was a resident of the State of Montana.

II.

In the Spring of 1973, in Kimberly, Idaho, plaintiff and defendant entered into a contract whereby defendant agreed to purchase from plaintiff, and plaintiff agreed to sell to defendant, a collection of gemstones, rough cut and polished slabs of various minerals, artifacts, fossils, crystals, petrified wood and miscellaneous minerals for the price of twenty cents ($0.20) per pound. It was further agreed that defendant would purchase from plaintiff the entire collection at said price. Defendant has come to Idaho and has taken possession of portions of the collection from plaintiff's residence near Kimberly, Idaho, and has paid plaintiff for the portions taken. Defendant has failed and refused, however, to take possession of and pay for the remaining portion, to-wit: 12 tons. Plaintiff has been, and now is, ready, willing and able to deliver the remaining 12 tons to defendant.

Ca. 11-3-3-1

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant for the sum of $4,800.00, plus interest and costs of suit.

Dated this 8th day of March, 1976.
