Dear Don:

I really enjoyed your last letter and tomorrow morning I am mailing you the core. I would much rather you see it first and then hand it over to Dr. Swanson.

In the meantime, let me know what size pieces of Peacock you want and I will send them up to you after you get back from Washington. I have approximately 100,000 lbs. of this material in the back yard, so I am sure I will still have plenty when you return!

I am going to try to leave Sunday on the South and Central American trip, so drop me a line when you are ready and I will ship the larger pieces to you.

Best wishes,

Ed Barry
