Dear Don:

Your letter of the 24th and one from Earl were on my desk this morning. We have just spent almost three weeks in Greece and wished that you had been along. Had never been there before so it all was new and exciting.

Wish I had been along at the red obsidian quarry. You ought to do a short report on it and illustrate some of the material. Your experience would make it all so much more meaningful than ~~some~~ comments by the rest of us. (meaning the average archy)

Peggy had the pertinent page of the Lowie report copied. Do you still want the whole thing?

Evelyn's picture of me was delivered. Many thanks.

As ever,

Junius B. Bird
