

VITA

John L. Fagan

Born: San Francisco, California, May 13, 1944.
Address: Museum of Natural History, University of Oregon, Eugene 97403
Education: A.A., Central Oregon Community College, Bend, Ore. 1964.
B.A., University of Oregon, Eugene, 1966.
M.A., University of Oregon, Eugene, 1968.
Ph.D., University of Oregon, Eugene, 1973.

Fellowships and honors:

State Fee Scholarship, University of Oregon 1964-1966.
Graduate Student Fellowship for summer research in Mexico, 1969.
National Science Foundation Grant for doctoral research, 1970.

Professional societies:

The American Association of University Professors
Society for American Archaeology.
Sigma Xi.

Significant field research and laboratory experience:

Summer, 1965--excavation work on the John Day Project (Columbia River) for the University of Oregon Museum of Natural History.
1965-1966--laboratory preparation work, U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.
Summer, 1966--field assistant, John Day Project.
September, 1966-- survey of the Snake River, Washington, for Washington State University, Pullman.
1966-1967--laboratory research assistant, U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.
Summer, 1967-- field assistant, John Day Project.

ce. 29.5.12.1

September, 1967-- survey of the Grande Ronde Valley, Oregon, for U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

1967-1968--laboratory research assistant, U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

Summer, 1968--excavation, Collier's State Park, Klamath Falls, Oregon, for U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

September, 1968--survey of the Umatilla Basin Project for U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

Summer, 1969--wholesale produce market study, Monterrey, Mexico.

September, 1969--survey of Coyote Basin, Oregon, for U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

Summer, 1970--test excavations in southeastern Oregon for doctoral research.

Summer, 1971--teaching assistant for U. of Oregon field school, Willamette Valley, Oregon.

1971 to 1972--research assistant for U. of Oregon Museum of Natural History.

Spring, 1972-- field foreman for the Lake Roosevelt Project, Kettle Falls, Washington, under the auspices of U. of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho.

Summer, 1972--field foreman for the Archaeological Survey of the Fox River Valley, Wisconsin, U. of Wisconsin at Oshkosh.

1972 to present--Assistant Curator of Anthropology, Museum of Natural History, U. of Oregon, Eugene.

Teaching experience:

1968-1971--teaching fellow for general anthropology courses, U. of O.

Summer, 1971--teaching assistant for field school, U. of O.

Publications:

"An Archaeological Survey of the Grande Ronde Project" (with David L. Cole and David H. Chance) Museum of Natural History, University of Oregon, Eugene, 1967.

Ca-29.5.12.2

"Archaeological Survey of the Proposed Umatilla Basin Project" (with David L. Cole and Michael D. Southard), Museum of Natural History, University of Oregon, Eugene, 1968.

"Spring Sites and the Altithermal Problem in the Northern Great Basin" (dissertation) to be published in University of Oregon Papers in Anthropology.

Papers delivered:

"The Evolution and Development of the Wholesale Fruit and Vegetable Market in Monterrey, Mexico," Instituto Tecnológico, Monterrey, Nuevo León, Mexico, August, 1969.

"Report of Summer Research in Monterrey, Mexico," University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, September, 1968.

"Preliminary Report on Excavations at Spring Sites in the Northern Great Basin," The 24th Annual Northwest Anthropological Conference, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, April 3, 1971.

Major interests and abilities:

Public relations and educational archeology.

Paleo-Indian prehistory.

Method and theory of archaeology.

Obsidian hydration analysis.

Flint knapping and stone technology.

Culture change.

References:

Dr. C. Melvin Albens, Department of Anthropology,
University of Oregon, Eugene, 97403

David L. Cole, Curator of Anthropology, Museum of Natural History
University of Oregon, Eugene, 97403

Dr. Luther S. Crossman, Department of Anthropology,
University of Oregon, Eugene, 97403

Dr. Don E. Diamond, Department of Anthropology, University of Oregon, Eugene, 97403

Dr. Frederick Sprague, Department of Sociology/Anthropology,
University of Idaho, Moscow, 83843

le. 29.5.12.3