TALENCE, Le December 12, 1972

Dear Don and Evelyn,

Glad to have recent news from you ,and that Don is now better. Life did give you a raw deal, as far as health goes. Hold fast!

Well, nothing much new here. My daughter Cécile is with us for a month with little Martin, who, when in jeans, cow boy hat and pistol, looks and acts very much Dennis the Menace! But he his a fine boy all the same.

Glad to learn you plan to come to Europe next spring. As for myself, I shall probably cross the Atlantic also, but I do not know when. Probably in September.

A merry Xmas and a happy New Year!

Bien amicalement,

F. Bordes
