Dear, Dear Francois and Denise :

I am so sorry to be so late in expressing my heartfelt thanks to you both for your most welcome kindnesses and sympathy. It has been a most trying time in my life. This is ~~this~~ the first letter that I have tried to write for many months. My new arteries still give pain when I sit, but they are improving.

The thoughts of your coming give me a new lease on life, you will be most welcome and I shall look forward to seeing a dear friend again. Since time is limited for you I shall post this letter now and look forward to meeting you at the airport.

Love to you both,

Don Crabtree
