

FLAG. 1/c2
122

III''c

natural size

Dear Don,

Look at that! This man knew how to make blades and exhaust cores!
It has been found by Rigaud, in his site of Flageolet, in Dordogne. It is an Upper Perigordian level, about the same as Corbiac. In its way, it is a pure marvel. I wonder how the man did hold it, and how he managed to take off the last blades without breaking it!

Ce 2.1.163