Dear Mr. Crabtree:

Some time ago I requested your help in our evaluation process, and I have long since received your comments. I am sorry that we have been so busy that I have not been able to acknowledge your reply and to thank you for your help before now. As you know, it is only with the aid of informed opinion such as yours that we are able to make decisions on these proposals; I am deeply grateful for your help.

Sincerely yours,

John B. Cornell
