Mr. Don Crabtree

Shefferson

Dear Mr. Crabtree:

With regard to the request in my recent letter to you to see your tumor incision, I am increasingly uneasy that it is most likely too nervy a thing to ask. I am also reluctant to stray too far from home in my little car, now that snow has come.

However, as I indicated in my letter, I am very interested in the progress of research into the use of obsidian tools for f surgery. Might I trouble you to let me hear from you regarding this at your convenience.

Thank you for whatever information you can provide.

Sincerely yours,

Marilyn Campbell
