Dear Mr. Crabtree:

I had read of your visit to the Texas Archaeological Society at S.M.U. in Dallas, Texas, in the fall of 1965. The clipping became lost and upon finding same I still want to contact you in this matter. I share with you that the Flint Flakers were genuine craftsmen.

Last summer we were privileged to do about a three week tour through Old Mexico. Among the many places visited we topped them all when we visited the Museum of Anthropology at Mexico City.

The writer has worked with Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts for many years and would like to get possession of a book describing the Flint Flaking art. No doubt, you have written just such a book. If so, would you please advise me as to where I might come by such a book, pamphlet, etc.

Thanking you in advance, I remain, along with you, an admirer of the Flint Flakers.

Very truly yours,

D. W. Caswell
