Dear Don:

Carl Burke has told me of your time and trouble in circulating my Petition for Candidacy. I sincerely and deeply appreciate your help and support.

These petitions are of vital importance to me, and the statewide response to my petitions, as Carl has reported it to me, is extremely heartening.

It is my earnest desire to include all my friends in the coming campaign and I feel that the wide distribution of these petitions was a good start in that direction. The campaign will be a hard one and I will need your continuing help.

My thanks to you, Don. I hope you will let us hear from you as the campaign develops. I want your advice and suggestions during the coming months.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Frank Church
