Dear Mrs. Crabtree

Ever since I was a young boy, I was always fascinated in arrowheads which started when our family went to South Dakota.

The only information I could find was discovered, by accident, was the section of your flintworking you have presented in the book titled "The New World" copywritten in 1975 by the Elsevier Publishing company. According to your article this is a highly refined art, which is a rare art to find.

I would like to know where can I get some more information on this ~~the subject~~ <sup>subject</sup> & where can I get some tools (antlers) or what good substitutes that can be used?

Due to my home town in southern Florida antlers are hard to come by. Pardon my writing for I am not the best writer <sup>in</sup> in the world. Thank you
