Hi Don,

was great visiting with you at the Plains Conference. Work is going well as I'm working on lithics with one of Phil Shelly's understudies. We have lots of heated discussions, but agree on a few points. We just moved to the country and winter is much more apparent out here. Hope you have a nice holiday season & do plan on coming down this way next season as we'd love to have you & show you around.

Always,
Vickie Clay
