Dear Evelyn and Don:

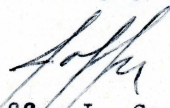

I appreciate very much receiving your long letter bringing me up to date on some of your more recent activities. I am certainly sorry, however, to learn that your trip to Europe resulted in pneumonia. As for myself, I reached home with an infected throat which kept me out of circulation for a few days.

I hope you will continue to keep me informed of your activities, and I will look forward to visiting with you in Idaho if I ever have the opportunity. I will probably not be able to attend the conference in California, but perhaps you will be coming to the Society for American Archaeology meetings in Illinois.

I am sending you under separate cover a copy of a recent publication which contains some rather naive remarks on lithic technology. If Don should have the time to comment on these type descriptions, I will greatly appreciate it.

With best wishes for the New Year.

Cordially yours,

Joffre L. Coe
Director
