Dear Mr. Phagan:

I regret to inform you that the Smithsonian Institution is unable to offer you a fellowship in support of the research you proposed to conduct at the Smithsonian. The selection committee was interested in your project, but the fellowship funds are extremely limited. It was the committee's finding that other proposals were more closely suited to the Institution's fellowship program. In addition, they believe the Smithsonian does not have any special facilities and resources for the successful completion of your study.

Thank you for your interest and effort expended in submitting your proposal.

Sincerely yours,

Edward S. Davidson
