Dear Mrs. Jones:

My colleague, Tom Roll, recently received from you one copy of Don Crabtree's 1970 article in Curator. Unfortunately, our attempt to photocopy the article met with poor results, such as the loss of not only detail in photographs but identifying information as well. In view of our interests in publicizing Don's work, in connection with our lithic studies in the Museum of the Rockies, I would appreciate very much receiving a copy of the original article.

Please express my gratitude to Don for this favor.

Sincerely yours,

Leslie B. Davis
Assistant Professor of Anthropology
