Dear Don,

I wish to thank you for your kind note pertaining to the re-opening of the Museum. I was very pleased to have the honor of introducing you and making a few remarks. As with so many worthwhile things in life, real achievement lies not only with individual initiative and generosity, but also the cooperative effort of people who can, will, and do enjoy working together. Your achievements have become a source of pride not only to your many colleagues, but to all of us here at the University.

With all best wishes.

Sincerely,

William E. Davis
President
