Dear Don;

What should we do about these?? Shall we answer them individually or set up some kind of joint program? Personally, I CAN'T take on any more writing until two monographs and an article we now have in the jig are on their way to publication. Shall we ask both Scientific American and this Jackson cat if they can give us another six months??

Both pieces of writing would be really worthwhile ventures--create a lot of interest, help us get some grant money etc.

It was GREAT having you guys walk in like that. Do it more often!

Best to both,
