Dear friend:

I was very happy to make the acquaintance of you, your wife, and Dr. Bordes. In case you do not remember which one I am I will try to identify. I met you at breakfast in the cafeteria of the Illini Union on Sunday Morning. We later had a long talk in the corridor at the hotel near our rooms.

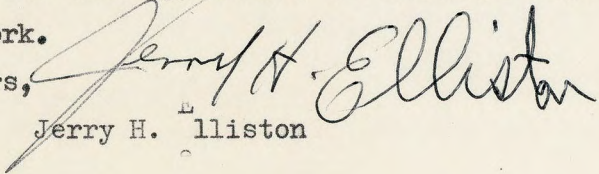

I promised some announcements of archeological meetings that are really a congregation of vandals . Some are enclosed.

I would like very much for you to do me a favor. I will enclose $1.00 to cover the cost of mailing and I would like some flint chips. Both percussion and pressure flaked. Also any diagnostic information you can furnish.

I hope you made it back home without any trouble. As we came home we found an old negro with a large family and a broken down auto sitting along side the Interstate highway. We took him back to the nearest large town hoping to get repairs, but found that he would have to be towed in and await the opening of the parts shop on Monday morning. Anyhow we played the Good Samaritan as best we could which was better than leaving him beside the highway.

I hope to meet you again, and will appreciate the material requested. It will help us in our own work.

Sincerely yours,

Jerry H. Elliston
