SECOND CALL FOR CHAPTERS

Dear Colleague,

The volume, Lithic Quarry Production, is beginning to take shape. Please find enclosed the most recent book proposal. Since we are actively seeking a publisher (potentially, Princeton University Press), we would like to receive your preliminary draft for publisher's review by March 15.

Although we have received sufficient papers and interest to proceed with the volume, we have reached a slight dilemma. We would like to extend the volume by including papers from South America, Africa, and Central Europe. If you can suggest likely contributors, your suggestions would be most appreciated.

For now..Season's Greetings...

Sincerely,

Jonathon E. Ericson,
Assistant Professor

P.S. Barbara suggested a reprint of one of your articles.
Would you rather submit an original for this volume?
Either is fine with me.
