Dear Dr. Crabtree:

Your most gracious letter of September fifteenth arrived just as I am leaving the office for a few days, hence the informality of the signature. I did want to drop you a note and thank you very much for going to the trouble of responding to my letter of invitation. It was most gracious of you to write, and I am deeply in your debt.

I hope you will stop by for a visit whenever you are over this way. It would be a pleasure to meet you, show you through our archive, and give you a little better idea of the program we have underway.

With all good wishes, I am,

Cordially,

Gene M. Gressley
