Dear Don,

I am enclosing a copy of a review article I just wrote for REVIEWS IN ANTHROPOLOGY that may interest you. As you can see, I found Earl's book to be a rather mixed bag, but with some quite good items nevertheless. If you ever feel like it, I would like very much to have your comments and criticism of this review. Please keep this copy for your files.

Here's a bit of information you may be able to use. I finally located a firm that can supply first-rate obsidian in large quantities at reasonable rates. We recently obtained 2000 lb. of red Oregon obsidian for my lithics class here at UH, and we are getting excellent results with it. If anyone should ask you for advice about this, they can place their order through:

Mr. J.W. Trowbridge
DW Products Co.
P.O. Box R
Escondido, Calif. 92025

I like their stuff better than Gem Center, U.S.A., mainly because DW sent us bigger pieces (5-10 lb. each) at a rate that was comparable to Gem Center's.

I hope you are both keeping well these days. Betsy says hi and sends her best wishes.

Cheers,

Dick
