Dear Don:

Talked with Marie Wormington last evening, and she told us of Evelyn's passing, and of your problems. Helen and I were and are inexpressibly shocked and distressed at the news.

The loss of such a rare woman as Evelyn - a quality which we sensed even though we met her only once or twice - is saddening, and especially so when she is one of a partnership like yours.

You, of course, will not know it, but you two are among the best-loved people we have ever known, by all who know you.

Our deepest sympathy, and our heart felt good wishes for your own recovery.

Most sincerely,

Julean + Helen
